

Investigation clears Antcliff

By HENRY CANTIN

Charges made against Byron K. Antcliff alleging violations of Michigan school laws in performing the duties of school superintendent of the Huron School District have been entirely cleared by an investigation made by the Michigan Department of Public Instruction, it was reported Monday.

The investigation was made by Roger A. Boline, director of School Management Services of the Department of Public Instruction. His report and recommendations were disclosed Monday by school officials.

The list of 14 allegations filed against Antcliff accused him of "repeatedly usurping the functions of the school board and violating the state laws governing the conduct of a school superintendent." Antcliff has denied the charges.

The charges were filed by three school board members, Mildred Bennett, Harry W. Hartsuff and Mrs. Erma Palmer. A list of similar charges were filed by the Huron Township Citizens Committee.

The charges made by the citizens group were signed by Mrs. June Davidson, president of the Huron Township Citizens Committee.

Boline's investigation into the allegations began with a four-hour hearing conducted at the Hannan Road Elementary School on Oct. 29.

Many of the 29 persons present at the hearing gave verbal testimony regarding the alleged conditions and problems in the school district.

Boline reported that he "found nothing that gives the appearance of being in violation of school law." He did recommend, however, suggestions for the updating of school policy. (See elsewhere in this issue for a comment on this by Carl Rush, school board president.)

The recommendations made by Boline are as follows.

"1—That the board of education revise, or update the current board policies. These policies should be strictly followed. The board, however, has the right to change its existing or future policies provided they are in compliance with law.

"2—We suggest that the Michigan School Board Association be contacted for orientation information for new and old board members.

"We strongly recommend that the board make definite committee assignments for its members.

"4—We further recommend that the board, by formal resolution, appoint is members on the negotiation team. We believe that consideration should be given to the idea of appointing a negotiator, not a member of the staff or board.

"5—We suggest that each board member receive and study the school code.

"6—We feel that some confusion regarding the notices of board meetings would be clarified if all such notices were sent to board members by certified, return receipt mail. This is particularly true regarding special meetings."

Boline stated in his report, "As mentioned at the meeting (Oct. 29), it appears that most all of the allegations have to do with board policy. It further appears that two factions of interest groups are vying for control of the board. We believe that a strong board policy will help clear the way for a better spirit of cooperation to prevail."

The allegation regarding the so-called "Hippie Room," was very inconclusive, Boline reported. He added that the room is no longer in use.

Mrs. Mildred Bennett, school board member and complainant, was advised by Trooper Donald Chappel of State Police Post at Flat Rock that he could see "nothing" of a criminal nature other than the reference to narcotics. Boline disclosed "she was further advised that the incident "would be reported to the Juvenile Officer, Michigan State Police for further action," Boline said.

Rush praises conduct of school superintendent

Carl Rush, president of the Huron School District's Board of Education, Monday issued a formal reply to charges filed against School Superintendent Byron K. Antcliff.

The school superintendent was accused of "repeatedly usurping the functions of the school board and violating the state law governing the conduct of a school superintendent." Antcliff has denied the charges.

Rush, in his reply, reported that an investigation by Roger A. Boline, director of School Management Services of the Michigan Department of Public Instruction has "entirely cleared" the school superintendent.

The 14 charges were filed against Antcliff by three school board members and a citizens committee.

Rush, speaking as school board president, said "The charges made against Mr. Antcliff, and the conduct of Huron School affairs, have been entirely cleared by the investigation of the Michigan Department of Public Instruction.

"It is a shame that a few individuals can cause so much furor with charges which cannot be substantiated in anyway.

"Mr. Antcliff is to be commended for the fine manner in which he has withstood the malicious attempts to force him to leave. A man with less courage would say 'why bother with such people,' and move on to greener pastures.

"Regarding the suggestions by Mr. Boline for the need to update school policy, I could not agree more. A work session for this purpose was scheduled in July-to be held Sept. 14.

"Due to threats of legal action, and a small group of irate citizens, this meeting was held as a public meeting. The result was to postpone action until after Nov. 23, to permit anyone interested to submit suggested policy. So far, nothing has been submitted.

"From all of this turmoil, it is hoped that really concerned and interested parents and citizen will become involved. Attend at least one School Board meeting and see for yourself the manner in which things are done.

"If you appreciate the progress of Huron Schools and improvements in the program, you should get involved, or they could be lost. Our next meeting is at 8 p.m., Nov. 30, at the Hannan Road School."

Council approves purchase of land

The purchase by the City of Romulus of a land parcel, located on the east side of the city's Water Board Building has been approved by city council.

The approval by council authorizes Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael to enter into a purchase agreement for the property, a 150 by 215-foot parcel of land, at a cost not to exceed $14,000 plus the cost of refencing along the west property line of the land site.

The land parcel, when purchased, will be used by the Department of Public Works. Under cityhood, Romulus has assumed the maintenance and repair of its streets and roads. More space is needed for the stockpiling of road maintenance equipment and supplies, Council was told.

ESCAPE HOUSE FIRE — Romulus firemen battle a house fire at 6064 Fourth St. The fire broke out in one of the bedrooms of the one-story structure on the morning of Nov. 7. The Wayne County Sheriff's Road patrol reports that no one was injured, occupants managed to escape the fire before firemen arrived. The fire was discovered at 9:12 a.m. by Mrs. Earlie Mosley, 23, who rents the home.

She was awakened by the blaze in the bedroom and managed to awaken others and get them out of the house. The other occupants were Curtis Jefferson, 28, Joann Mosley, 16, Brenda Mosley, 13; and Lorenzo and Chanti Mosley, both 4. A total of 17 firemen and one assistant fire chief were at the scene. The fire was brought under control at 11:10 a.m. An investigation of the blaze is under way.

In Romulus Democrats win big Democratic candidates seeking election to U.S. state and Wayne County offices in the November general election won voter approval by wide margins in the City of Romulus.

Approximately 70 per cent of the city's total vote registration went to the polls. The number of ballots cast, 5,193, was the highest since the 1968 presidential election, it was reported by election officials.

The city's present vote registration lists stand at 8,534 persons.

State Proposal A and Proposal B were both defeated.

The controversial Proposal

C which bans state financial aid to non-public schools and students was approved by almost two to one vote.

There were no local issues before the city's electorate Nov. 3.

Proposal A, which would authorize the state to borrow $100 million and issue general obligation bonds for low income housing was defeated by a vote of 2,373 to 1,822.

Proposal B, calling for a constitutional amendment to permit a change in the voting age to 18 years, was defeated by a vote of 2,624 to 1,734.

Romulus voters were in favor of Proposal C. The controversial proposal was approved by a vote of 2,679 to 1,892.

Vote returns for the governor's contest showed Governor William G. Milliken's total at 1,938 to 3,002 for Sander Levin, his Democratic opponent.

U.S. Philip A. Hart was approved for a new six-year term by a vote of 3,819 to 1,067 for his Republican opponent, Mrs. Lenore Romney.

U.S. Congressman William D. Ford, a Democrat, received 3,797 votes to 827 for Republican Ernest C. Backler in the 15th District race.

Incumbent State Rep. Edward E. Mahalak (D-38th District) received 3,408 votes in his bid for a fourth term.

His Republican opponent Dale C. Wagenknecht of Petersburg, Monroe County, received 1,137.

State Sen. William Faust, 13th District, received a vote total of 3,543 to 947 for his Republican foe Anthony A. Bielecki Jr.

In the race for Wayne County Board of Commissioners' 24th District post, John N. Sabo Jr. received 3,322 votes to 1,032 votes for republican.

Attorney General Frank J. Kelley received 3,631 votes in his re-election bid to 915 votes for Republican William S. Farr Jr.

Richard H. Austin, seeking the post of Secretary of State, got 3,353 votes to 1,401 votes for Emil Lockwood, Republican.

Wayne County Sheriff William Lucas, seeking his first full term, received 3,858 votes to 865 for Republican Kenneth C. Gallagher.

The vote results in the non-partisan race for eight-year terms on the Michigan Supreme Court were as follows:

Wayne County Circuit Judge John B. Swainson and former Gov. G. Mennen Williams received 2,641 votes and 2,192 votes respectively.

Wayne County Circuit Judge Edward S. Piggins received 1,522 votes Supreme Court Justice John R. Dethmers, who was seeking another term, got 841.

Commission designed to improve relations

A resolution creating a Community Relations Commission for the City of Romulus has been approved by city council.

The resolution was approved by a six to one vote. Councilman James C. Stewart cast the dissenting vote.

The Community Relations Commission will consist of 15 members appointed by the mayor with the approval of the city council. Members of the commission will serve without compensation and will serve staggered terms.

Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael at the Nov. 5 council session submitted his recommendations for commission personnel. Council approved the recommendations. They are to be contacted and asked to serve. They are:

For three-year terms—Elvera Fischer, Rev. Lonnie England, Rev. Allen Burton, Mary Hatten and Gikendall Phenix.

For two-year terms—Mary Hearst, Patricia McDonald, Tom Janack, National Butler and Donna L. Zavitz.

For one-year terms—Gary Martin, Nancy Shirley, Dale A. Nichols, Thomas Coleman and Jacob J. Koch.

The motion to approve the resolution was made by Councilman William M. Oakley. He was supported on the motion by Councilman Ellis T. Pennington. A roll call vote was taken.

In voting no, Councilman

Stewart said that he saw no definite reason for the creation of the commission.

The commission was created to officially encourage and bring about mutual understanding and respect among all groups in the city; to eliminate prejudice, intolerance, bigotry, discrimination and disorder; and to give effect to the guarantee of equal rights for all, assured by the Constitution and laws of Michigan and of the United States.

The commission will meet at least 10 times a year and is required to submit reports to the mayor and city council on its activities.

The resolution creating the commission was given immediate effect.

In Romulus area 'Bazaar of Values' beginning this week

You, Mr. and Mrs. Consumer, have made this trading area the finest trade center in Western Wayne County.

Your shopping habits and buying skill have thrown the spotlight on the area and have caused other communities to look with envy in our direction.

The merchants advertising in the Enterprise-Roman "Bazaar of Values" pages in this week's issue have long been aware of your value, but recently have come to appreciate you even more, when they compare sales receipts and bank deposits with other communities throughout Michigan.

Your knowledge of merchandising keeps these merchants busy, constantly looking for bigger and better values to pass on to you. These firms are proud of their new merchandising. They pride themselves in that you can find the identical item in this area that you can find in any shopping center.

You can shop in the Enterprise Roman trading area with confidence. The shopkeepers are your friends. Their purpose is to supply you with the best quality merchandise, at the lowest possible prices.

During the eight-week "Bazaar of Values", the Enterprise-Roman will give away $200 in cash to shoppers who patronize merchants participating in the "Bazaar of Values."

During the first four weeks, $10 will be given away each week. During the following three weeks, $20 will be given away each week, and at the end of the eighth week, a $100 prize will be given away to some lucky consumer.

All entries stay in the Enterprise-Roman's "Bazaar of Values" prize box the entire eight weeks. You have a chance to win each week. You may deposit as many entries as you wish. The more entries you make, the better chance you have of winning.

Shop the "Bazaar of Values" from these merchants:

Marvaso's Sales & Service, Foodville, Huron Sod Farms Inc., Hamilton Pro Hardware, B & O Collision, Johnson Fuel & Supply, Vicars Trailer Sales Inc., Romulus Recreation Center and Bud's T.V. Service.

Also Kirk's Drug Store, Mammings, Ballard's Florist, Sumpter Ace Hardware, Kureth's, Burcroft Furniture, A & D Motor Co., Coy Kendall Flowers, Hoots Boots, Robert's Bros. Inc., and Rose's Union 76.

Also Gamble's of Belleville, Huron Electric, Douglas Carpets, Gondolier Music House, Monties Meat, Vacation Camper, Home Gallery and Moss Bros.

Democrats will meet

The Van Buren-Belleville Democratic club will meet at 8:30 p.m. tonight (Wednesday) at Rogalle's Supper Lounge, located on Haggerty Rd. at the I-94 Expressway.

Recording Secretary Miss Barbara Rogalle announced that the Van Buren-Belleville Democratic Club is not a closed club and urges community-wide attendance.

Parks draw record crowds

Wonderful fall color and four beautiful, sunny weekends helped attract a record of 534,953 persons from the counties of Livingston, Macomb, Oakland, Washtenaw and Wayne to the park of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority in October.

This record was 108,953 more persons than used the HCMA parks in October, 1969 when the total count was 429,300.

Lower Huron Metropolitan Park near Belleville had its third highest October patronage with 144,980 visitors compared to 135,600 in October, 1969. The record for the month is 166,460 set in October, 1960.

Kensington Metropolitan Park near Milford had a record high of 168,000 visitors.

Wayne County OEO seeks Head Start funds

A proposal for $536,000 in federal funds was submitted to the Chicago Regional Office of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW) and awaits final approval to continue operation of the Wayne County Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO) Child Development Head Start program for 1971.

The program serves 11 target areas in Ecorse, Hamtramck, Highland Park, Inkster, River Rouge, Romulus, Sumpter, Taylor, Wayne, Westwood, and Wyandotte.

The Head Start project will provide full year and summer pre-school classes for some 723 youngsters from low-income families, between the ages of three and a half and five years old.

The Child Development Program goals are to prepare disadvantaged youngsters, at an early age, in meaningful learning experiences before they enter kindergarten. This is designed to allow Head Start children to better compete with youngsters from more fortunate backgrounds.

Included in the long term goals for the 1971 program are improved curriculum in the classroom and increased parent and community involvement. Jerome C. Falwell, child development coordinator for Wayne County OEO explains these goals.

"Some significant changes included for the coming year's program will involve more staff and parent training by use of two psychologists who

Romulus resident says thanks to Mr. Oakley

To the Editor:

I too am a reader of the Romulus Roman, resident and taxpayer of the city of Romulus.

I read Mr. Kelley's opinion on Mr. Oakley's holding dual positions and it was that, "an opinion." If one am very tired of Mr. Charles R. Kline's frequent letters to the editor criticizing and challenging our mayor and his council. I think, considering the short time they have been in office and the condition of the township when they took over, they are doing a very good job. Mr. Oakley is, in my opinion, a capable and good citizen who cares enough to give a great deal of time to his community.

We, the citizens of Romulus, elected Mr. Oakley to both positions by a large margin. I feel sure, if Mr. Oakley is doing anything illegal, he will be the first to set things right. What are you, Mr. Charles R. Kline, a poor loser?

Wouldn't it be nice to see a few more letters to the editor giving support to our mayor and council for trying to make Romulus a better place to live in?

I am proud to say I've lived in Romulus all my life and for what its worth, you have my thanks and support.

State representative 'puts foot in mouth'

To the Editor:

As a member of Representative Mahalak's constituency, I feel compelled to comment on his most unfortunate remarks, which appeared in a Flat Rock paper last week.

Inference to action taken at a Special Meeting of the Huron School District's Board of Education, Mahalak said, and I quote from the article, "That's a hell of a way to run a railroad. It's undemocratic and un-American. This is shutting off a minority and we wouldn't do it in Lansing and they wouldn't do it in Washington, D.C. It was in very poor taste and I'm really disgusted."

I won't comment on the accuracy of Mr. Mahalak's words, but as a politician, he certainly put his foot in his mouth! Just because he attended a four-hour meeting on Thursday, Oct. 29, at which Messrs. Boline, Godmer, Antcliff, Renton, Board Members, Legislative Assistants, citizens and other assorted dignitaries were also present, does not make him knowledgeable of the problems in our School District.

I suggest before he makes any other such ridiculous charges, he spend some time listening to tape recordings of previous board meeting. This task alone should take him several weeks, for our School Board has spent many long hours listening to the people of the district as well as certain Board Members.

Another small point which might be mentioned: according to the Policy of the Huron School District, page 4, article 9, "No business may be transacted at special meetings except that for which the meeting was called."

I can only say that Mrs. Bennett was out of order in trying to bring a motion on the floor without asking to have it placed on the agenda. In all fairness to Mrs. Bennett, she was probably unaware of this policy.

Fuel oil ordinance approved

A Fuel Oil Ordinance has been approved by the city council of Romulus.

The ordinance regulates the use, handling, storage and sale of fuel oil and the arrangement, design, construction and installation of burners, tanks and other equipment for the burning of fuel oil for heating purposes in the city.

Hearing on ordinances

A public hearing on 14 ordinances proposed by the Romulus City Council will be held at 7 p.m., Nov. 24, at the Water Board Building.

The proposed ordinances have been reviewed and updated by the city council. The City Charter requires the city council to review all ordinances previously adopted by the old township government.

Attendance was up over last year for everything at the Saratoga Performing Arts Center this summer.

Attendance for the New York City Ballet increased 19 per cent, with 74,566 persons attending ballets this year, 66,397 last year, an increase of 5 per cent. Chamber music performances brought in 1,505 last year and 2,001 this year, an increase of 33 per cent.

The largest increase was in special events, up 91 per cent. This was largely attributed to the record 25,000 persons who heard the rock group Chicago on Sept. 1.

Ordinance establishes pay for commissioners

An ordinance to provide for the establishing of salary schedules of board and commission members serving the City of Romulus has been approved by city council.

The adoption of the ordinance at the Nov. 5 meeting of the council was required by a provision of the City Charter that all members of the boards and commissions shall have their salary fixed by the city council in accordance with the limitations of the charter and the limits of the city budget appropriations.

A motion to approve the ordinance was made by Councilman Ellis T. Pennington. He was supported by Councilman Brook R. Edwards. The ordinance received the unanimous approval of council.

The ordinance provides for the following salary schedule: Members of the Recreation Commission will receive $25 per month and $40 per month for the chairman. The commission secretary will receive $35 per month.

The Board of Canvassers will receive $35 per meeting per member.

Members of the Zoning Board of Appeals will receive $40 per month and the chairman $50 per month.

Romulus Building Authority will receive $50 per month per member.

And the Board of Review will receive $40 per day per member. The board of review meets annually.

40 Building permits issued

The Romulus Building Department issued 40 building permits calling for a total estimated construction cost of $633,407 in October, Joseph B. Gallagher, department manager, announced.

Of the 40 permits approved during the month, 15 were for the construction of residential building department including those issued by the electrical, heating and plumbing divisions amounted to 253 with fee payments totaling $7,446.50.

Among the industrial building permits approved were an industrial tool shop for Star Tool & Die of Detroit with an estimated cost of $45,000; a warehouse addition for Carl Gaenzler of Allen Park, estimated cost of $15,000; and a commercial bank branch for National Bank of Detroit, estimated cost of $187,000.

Others were a building permit to make fire repairs to Romulus Hardware Store operated by Joseph Lambert of Bloomfield, estimated cost $35,000, and a warehouse-office for Coughlin Services, Inc., of Detroit, estimated cost $100,000.

Huron begins band program

Persons interested in playing a band instrument may do so by coming to the Huron High School band room on any Tuesday evening at 8 p.m.

Community School Director Roger Benner announced this program by saying, "Here is an opportunity for everyone, adult and student alike to participate in an activity which is relaxing and challenging at the same time."

Benner states, that here is an organized class which does not present a cost problem. There is no fee assessed to the participant.

The only requirement is that the person have his own instrument except for sousaphones and percussion. String instruments will not be used in the band, except for string bass.

Luke Wegienka, assistant superintendent of Huron Schools is the director. Wegienka was a former band director at Airport Community School for several years.

Interested persons from other communities are welcome to participate in the Community Band Class.

Silver auction may lead to higher prices

United States Treasury auctions of silver ended Tuesday.

Tucked away in bureau drawers and bank vaults across the United States are billions of silver coins. Dealers, collectors and ordinary citizens have stashed them away not only because they regard the coins as souvenirs of a by-gone era, but also because they are convinced the price is going up.

Speculators will find out just how right they have been soon after the Treasury halts its weekly auctions of silver bullion for industrial users — a move dictated by short supplies.

Informed opinion about the likely consequences of the move is mixed. The Silver Users Association predicts "no major rise" in silver's price. But Simon Strauss, chairman of the silver committee of the American Congress, insists: "An upward pressure on prices seems inevitable."

If he is right, newlyweds will be paying more for their silverware, film costs will increase and so will the price of silver soldering and brazing compounds used in color television sets and other electronic equipment. At the same time, those who have stowed away silver will make a nice piece of change.

Silver has played an important and volatile role in American history — especially in the latter part of the 19th Century. Faced with depressed prices for their crops, American farmers sought unlimited coinage of silver to inflate prices and ease their debt burden. This was the foundation of the Populist movement that almost catapulted William Jennings Bryan into the White House in 1896.

The Treasury's modern involvement with silver started in 1934 when it began to purchase the metal with the hope of stabilizing prices. A staggering stockpile of 3.2 billion ounces of silver was built up, much of it in the eventually, post World War II prosperity created a greater demand for silver than the supply. The Treasury in 1959 began to auction off 1.8 million ounces a week to make up the difference. Some of this comes from melting down coins.

Speculation was rampant after the Treasury cut off silver sales to private individuals at $1.29 an ounce in May, 1967. Within a year, the price had climbed to $2.80 an ounce before dropping back to the current level of approximately $1.80. On June 24, 1968, the Treasury halted the practice of exchanging silver bullion for silver certificates of $1, $5 and $10 denominations.

By the time the last silver auction is held Tuesday in the bid room of the regional office of the General Services Administration in Washington, the Treasury's stockpile will have dropped to about 25 million ounces. Of this, 22 million ounces are earmarked for the Eisenhower Silver dollar — if Congress approves it. There is also a strategic stockpile of some 165 million ounces.

Officials of Handy & Harman, the firm that quotes the daily spot price for silver in New York, believe the end of government sales will have little effect on prices. They say consumption is dropping because of the economic downturn. Some speculators, convinced prices are near their highest prices are near their highest foreseeable levels are beginning to unload.

The U.S. News & World Report states: "On the whole, people who are hoarding silver coins can feel rather comfortable." Since 1965, when the government eliminated silver from newly-minted dimes and quarters and reduce the silver content of half dollars, the value of old coins have steadily climbed. It's illegal for private citizens to melt them down into bars, but the mystique of precious metals gives hoarders a sense of safety and value at least.

Between the lines

On the art of salesmanship...

The success of any business or sales program depends in great measure on customer satisfaction. A customer's goodwill should be the top priority in the operation of any business and for those engaged in the selling merchandise.

This reminder on the art of good salesmanship is prompted by a report that our local Chamber of Commerce has received many complaints against area merchants.

The complaints made by residents of the community charged some of the merchants with brusque treatment when making a sale, refusing to make amends or adjustments upon proper and legitimate grievance, and in some cases with complete disregard for the refund demands of customers.

In our opinion such actions on the part of the merchants accused creates a bad image on the business life of the community and in some instances withdrawals from the residential areas of the city and township.

In nearly every American city, township and village there exists "melting pots" of people, philosophies and ideas.

There is bound to be disagreements, misunderstandings and even personality dislikes.

Whether in business or in government, one should strive to be understanding, patient in dealings with his or her neighbor and above all strive to build a bigger and better image for the business and residential life of the community.

It has come to our attention that another claim to male superiority is on shaky grounds.

Results of a nationwide test show that men may not be better drivers than women after all.

In fact the study showed women reacted slightly better in four simulated traffic emergencies than their male counterparts.

The teenagers, members of driver education classes using an insurance firm Drivotrainer system, has to cope with an impending head-on collision, a near sideswipe, brake failure and a tire blowout.

The girls grappled with the crises better than the boys in two out of four situations and tied them in a third.

Every "litter" bit does hurt the taxpayer's pocketbook as pointed out recently at the Keep Michigan Beautiful, Inc. annual meeting held in East Lansing.

The nation's annual bill for the removal of litter from public and private property is $1 billion. So please remember this when you ignore the rules for community beautification.

Huron citizens' group answers back

To the Editor:

In reference to the article that appeared in this paper Nov. 4, The Huron Township Citizens Committee in conjunction with Mrs. Palmer, Mr. Hartsuff and Mrs. Bennett made exactly 14 charges against Superintendent Byron K. Antcliff.

The charges were reviewed by Rodger Boline, director of the Michigan Department of Public Instruction, and State Rep. Edward E. Mahalak.

Mr. Boline reviewed each charge individually. Mr. Antcliff openly admitted that most of these charges were indeed fact. Mr. Antcliff assured Mr. Boline that each of these charges had been corrected at one time or another.

The People for Huron and Mr. Antcliff did not mention the fact to Mr. Boline that none of these charges had been corrected until after many concerned parents and members of the Huron Township Citizens Committee confronted school board members and Mr. Antcliff with these charges and demanded explanation and asked that action be taken.

After a telephone conversation with Mr. Boline on Nov. 4, at 4:30 p.m. he quoted, "The charges have not been dropped as of this date." Mr. Boline went on to say the charges are still under investigation, therefore no statement has been sent to Mr. Antcliff or the People for Huron refuting these charges.

People for Huron, your statement in the paper that all these charges have been refuted by Mr. Boline is another false fact.

Mr. Hartsuff stated at the Oct. 29 meeting that all board members had previously agreed and gave Mr. Antcliff permission to establish a one-year contract for the teachers. Mr. Antcliff went beyond this and submitted to the board just a few days before the meeting a two-year contract. Mrs. Palmer, Mr. Hartsuff and Mrs. Bennett refrained from voting on the grounds that the procedure and contract were illegal.

There is no law in this country that states that board members must take advice from any one particular lawyer. This is called freedom.

When Mr. Rush called for an executive session, Mr. Larry S. Davidow, attorney advised the chairman of the board that this was an illegal step but Mr. Kyko, Mrs. Richert, Mr. Rush, Mr. Larabelle and Mr. Antcliff who are very good at by-passing rules, school board policy and Roberts rules of order, did leave the public meeting in spite of being challenged on its legality.

As they left the room Mr. Davidow advised the other three board members to remain in their seats if they did not want to be a party to this illegal act.

Mrs. Bennett had been given the floor by Mr. Rush and was in the process of making a motion, which she attempted to read aloud. Mr. Rush insisted she hand it to the secretary Mrs. Jean Richert to read. Instead, Mrs. Richert read the letter to herself and then threw it in front of her and immediately made a new motion to turn it down. It was seconded by Mr. Larabelle, thereby ignoring Mrs. Bennett's motion that was already on the floor.

A few days before the teacher ratification meeting, Hartsuff, Palmer and Bennett tried to block ratification of the teachers' contract. Wouldn't you do the same if you realized that these new contracts are going to cost us taxpayers an added sum of $6.75 for first year bachelors and $2,100 for a masters with 42 percent of the teachers holding a masters.

The vote by the teachers was 76 to 4 in favor of the contract. If you were a teacher who did not live in this district and did not have to pay the outrageous high taxes we already have, you too would have voted for all the goodies that Mr. Antcliff handed out on a silver platter.

Are the remarks that you refer to such as, "They just couldn't believe it," or "The situation is silly and pathetic and etc." some more of People for Huron's little gems?

Why didn't you also quote the published statement made by our State Rep. Edward Mahalak who was amazed at the tactics used by our chairman and his three co-horts Richert, Kyko and Larabelle:

"That's a hell of a way to run a railroad. It's un-democratic and un-American. This is shutting off a minority and we wouldn't do it in Washington, D.C., or they wouldn't do it in Lansing. It was in very poor taste and I'm really disgusted!"

Vice-President Mrs. Olga McDavid,
Secretary-Treasurer Mrs. Barbara Griffith

Democrats' elation interesting aspect

WASHINGTON — Whether it springs from smoke or substance, the elation of the Democrats is the most interesting feature of the post-election scene.

It derives in part from gratitude for survival but even among those who went down swinging, battlers like Sen. Albert Gore, there is fresh optimism that the causes to which their careers were tied are not to be swallowed up by the amorphous public mood.

Joseph Califano, anxious to revitalize the Democratic spirit, has been urging a period of introspection, a time for Democrats to re-examine their principles and objectives. The idea has validity and it struck a responsive chord in the sombre anticipations of Nov. 3. But now that Democrats have solid portents of Richard Nixon's vulnerability, the search for a soul seems less important to them than the search for a candidate.

So the Washington axis of the party is splitting up already into camps and by the first of the year, almost everyone will be in someone's corner. This trend is resisted by that doughty veteran, Averell Harriman, who wants the powerful figures to hang uncommitted on the sidelines and work together to mount a 1972 offensive.

No one questions the wisdom of Harriman's warning that the party can destroy itself through the rivalry of contenders. The memory of New York, where factionalism eroded what seemed to be a glowing chance to take the governor's chair, is very fresh. The bitterness of 1968 and the schism on the war still lurk close to the surface.

The destructive potential of a two-year rivalry for the 1972 nomination is illustrated by the frictions which arose from the powerful telecast by Sen. Edmund Muskie on election eve. Some are angry at Muskie for turning to Richard Goodwin, the ubiquitous ghost of the peace movement, for his speech draft, Muskie is angry at Goodwin for letting it be known that he wrote the speech and for involving Bill Moyers, who spread the word before funds for the telecast had been secured.

8. Counseling services: one full-time social worker to service Title I pupils.

9. Neighborhood Youth Corps (NYC): work-training program administered through the Wayne County Intermediate School District.

The above programs further utilize public owned school facilities through out the community.

This is an exemplary project approved by the Michigan Department of Education under Section 142 (d) of the Vocation Education Amendments of 1968. The purpose of this program is to motivate young people to become self-supporting by expanding vocational education programs now available in the high school, to help them develop job skills.

Two Programs now in progress are:

1. Cosmetology: Monday, Tuesday and Wednesdays from 3 to 6 p.m.

2. Auto Mechanics: Thursday from 3 to 7 p.m. and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

In my role as state and federal coordinator, I am ever mindful that these "supplementary funds" are contributed by the people of the community whether federal, state or county, and in planning with me, the Committee is ever alert to providing programs for all segments of the Community.

'Fringe' costs soar

The U.S. Chamber of Commerce has completed a new study of 1,115 firms which traces the growth of fringe benefits.

The findings are startling. This year, these benefits will cost employers a staggering $125 billion, an average of more than $40 per week per employee. And the amount employees pay for extra benefits is continuing upward almost twice as fast as wages and salaries.

On the average, for every $4 received by a worker in cash, his employer shells out an average of $1 for benefits.

Since 1959, these benefits have soared into the stratosphere. Social Security has increased 200 percent, insurance 128 per cent, workmen's compensation 93 per cent, profit-sharing payments 87 per cent, paid holidays 76 per cent, and so on.

The truth is that taxation and fringe benefits, when combined with inflation, are removing the discretionary spending ability of most U.S. citizens. Their income is "managed" by government and other agencies beyond their control.

Goodwill surfaces

While most of the news seems to portray a world hopelessly submerged in turmoil and conflict, there are deep-running undercurrents of goodwill among men that occasionally surface in stories of today's happenings.

Such is an item in the Chicago Heights (Ill.) Star reporting on an organization known as the American Field Service.

The AFS as a non-profit and non-sectarian scholarship program which endeavors to bring about understanding among people of many nations.

In the words of the Star, "AFS annually brings more than 3,000 students from 61 countries to the United States. Its Americans Abroad program sends more than 1,400 teens yearly to 44 countries overseas. In the past 23 years, more than 47,000 students from 79 countries have participated in AFS international scholarship programs."

The students who participate in the American Field Service are the kind of young people who will work toward a higher level of understanding with due respect for the views and rights or others—something the world sadly needs.

Speaking of schools

New programs developed

After evaluating the role of the school in the Romulus school system, it became apparent to the school officials that we were not meeting the needs of the citizens beyond the age of 16.

The first step in planning a program to meet these needs was to involve local people in the identification of their own problems and concerns in such a way that the needs of the people and the community were identified and met.

This was accomplished by organizing a Policy Advisory Council consisting of representatives from all phases of the community. From this council a Continuing Education Committee was formed. The committee members then began a general study of the community's needs and concerns and obtained responses through a survey that was sent to the citizens.

After these conferences, the four-pronged Community Education Programs were developed.

1. To find a post-high school program to upgrade individual skills through adult basis education and enrichment programs.
2. To provide transferable college credit opportunities.
3. To assist students who left high school before graduating to acquire saleable skills.

4. To provide opportunities for completion of high school work for a diploma.

Following the school board approval, a Community Education grant for $5,000 was received from Eastern Michigan University Community Education Center. This grant served as an "umbrella" for all of the Community School Programs listed.

In September 1970, the following programs were started and or continued.

1. Wayne County Community College Center. (Housed at the senior high school building.)

2. Adult Basic Education: a program for persons 16 years of age or older who have completed less than eight years of formal education.

3. E.S.E.A. Title I Program: (a) language development programs, (b) Reading improvement programs (RIP), and (c) cultural development and Communications project.

4. Breakfast programs in three elementary schools.

5. YWCA Nursery School Program.

6. High School completion and enrichment classes.

7. Health Service: one full-time school nurse, including complete health services.

Wayne County OEO program losing finances

The Great Lakes Regional Office of Economic Opportunity has notified the Wayne County Board of Commissioners that financial assistance to the Wayne County Office of Economic Opportunity will be discontinued at the end of its present grant on Nov. 30, 1970.

"This action is consistent with OEO and Administration efforts to demand high levels of management and program efficiency in the allocation of resources. Funds not used in Wayne County will be invested in other areas of the Great Lakes Region that are better able to provide services to poor people," stated Wendell Verduin, Regional Director of OEO's Great Lakes Region.

Verduin, in a letter to Commissioner John S. Cook cited four reasons for the decision:

1. — The program operations of the County of Wayne, Michigan, Office of Economic Opportunity are generally ineffective and do not have a measurable or potentially major impact on the causes of poverty in the community.

2. — Within the County of Wayne, Office of Economic Opportunity, there is almost a total absence of planning or even the capability of planning, without which the County of Wayne, Office of Economic Opportunity is unable to and does not develop information as to the problems and causes of poverty in the community, unable to and does not have determine how much and how effectively assistance is being provided to deal with these problems, and unable to and does not establish priorities among projects, activities and areas as needed for the best and most effective use of resources.

3. — The County of Wayne, Michigan, Office of Economic Opportunity does not have effective procedures by which the poor and area residents are able to influence the character of programs affecting their interests. The poor do not have an adequate voice in the choice or priority of programs and do not have an effective voice at Board meetings.

4. — The Wayne County Economic Opportunity Committee has evidence a pattern of direct participation in and interference with the implementation and execution of policy by the Executive Director and his staff, thereby causing programs to lose impetus, direction, coordination and purpose.

On October 20, representatives from Wayne County met with Verduin and other Regional Office representatives to show cause why their application for refunding should not be rejected. Verduin in his letter stated that the information presented at the meeting did little to change the Regional Office's assessment of their operations, and in fact confirmed the Regional Office's position. He added that the four reasons cited above are of sufficient seriousness to refuse to refund the agency. Verduin made it clear however, that this office had not eliminated the possibility for a future OEO program in Wayne County. He added that his office will give guidance and technical assistance toward such an effort to the Wayne County Commissioners and/or other interested public or private groups, and "will give funding consideration to proposals from groups who can demonstrate the capability of delivering needed services within a CAA structure."

Commissioners fighting cutoff of funds

Charging politics and a cover-up, Wayne County officials are fighting a decision by a federal regional office to kill the Wayne County Economic Opportunity program.

Wendell Verduin, director of the regional Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO) at Chicago, served notice late last week that federal funding which amounted to $776,000 this year, would end Nov. 30.

John S. Cook Jr., chairman of the Economic Opportunity Committee of the County Board of Commissioners, said Michigan's delegation in Congress would be asked to help persuade the Federal OEO in Washington to overrule Verduin.

Cook sent telegrams inviting Michigan senators and congressmen, as well as Gov. Milliken, to meet with County officials at 10 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 14 at the City-County Building.

If Verduin's decision stands, eight neighborhood action centers outside Detroit will be closed and some 90 employees of the Wayne County Office of Economic Opportunity will be laid off. The centers are located in Ecorse, Highland, Inkster, River Rouge, Romulus, Sumpter, Taylor and Hamtramck.

A freshly-signed $565,000 contract with the Michigan Employment Security Commission under which the County OEO was to refer unemployed persons for job training and placement would also be lost. County officials disclosed.

In a six-page telegram to Cook, Verduin charged that County OEO programs "are generally ineffective and do not have a measurable or potential major impact on the causes of poverty in the community."

His contention was denied at a news conference called by Cook, Philip Sims, chairman of the 33-member citizens policy committee for the County OEO, and County Commissioner Paul Silver, of

CAP Ball set for memorial

The 1970 Civil Air Patrol Cadet Ball will be held Dec. 5 at the War Memorial Building, Grosse Pointe, Mich. A highlight of the cadet ball will be the selection and crowning of Miss Michigan Wing CAP. Plans for attending and participating in the ball were discussed at last week's meeting of the Metropolitan Emergency Services Senior Squadron held at the Ford hanger at Metro Airport.

The squadron also reported that Chief Warrant Officer Orville Austin and his wife, Iris, celebrated her promotion to chief warrant officer by combining the celebration with a business trip to Florida and return.

Detroit, (D-District 11) who preceded Cook as chairman of the commissioners' committee.

Sims, a private management consultant, charged Verduin's decision was an effort to cover up mismanagement by his own office and is in line with the avowed goal of the Nixon Administration to cut economic opportunity programs by half.

Sims charged that Verduin's office has over-expended the funds available to the region and, therefore, decided to eliminate eight to ten local economic opportunity programs in order to make up the deficit.

Rebutting the contention that the County OEO has been ineffective, Sims said 6,000 signatures were collected overnight on petitions opposing the threatened cut. He said 3,000 persons signed in Taylor alone.

"There are more poor people in Wayne County outside of Detroit than there are in Detroit," he contended. "People have been coming from as far as Hamtramck and Livonia for treatment at our dental clinic in Taylor."

Programs threatened with extinction include manpower development, the Ecorse day care center, the Taylor dental clinic, a youth opportunity and recreation program, job counseling, a mobile family planning clinic and transportation for patients of Wayne County General Hospital.

Fifty-six of the 90-odd employees who would lose their jobs were recruited from among the poor, according to Sims.

The popular Head Start program for pre-school children would be continued under other auspices, Sims said.

In addition to Cook, of Detroit, (D-District 17) members of the Commissioners' Committee on Economic Opportunity are: John Lesinski, Dearborn (D-Dist. 20) vice-chairman; William R. Bryant Jr., Grosse Pointe Farms, (R-Dist. 3) Robert E. FitzPatrick, Detroit, (D-Dist. 13) George F. Killeen, Detroit, (D-Dist. 2) Michael J. Novak, Detroit, (D-Dist. 1); and John H. Shepherd, Detroit, (D-Dist. 12).

Sharon Smolen is 'showered'

WITH SHARON Smolen's December wedding date fast approaching, friends and relatives have been busy planning pre-nuptial parties in her honor.

The trio of scheduled showers began with a miscellaneous event October 23 given by Mrs. Joseph Smolen of Fret Road. Some 30 relatives enjoyed an evening of bingo and bridal-theme games with Mary Strzempek of Romulus taking home the house prize.

The red and white color scheme of the upcoming wedding was carried out in the parasol which was suspended over the gift table and in the specially-decorated cake made by the honoree's cousin, Loretta Radisovich.

Assisting Sharon with her assortment of presents was Candace De Hate of Brighton who's to be in the wedding party.

St. Anthony's Catholic Church has been reserved for Sharon's December 19 marriage to Edward Gielinski of Belleville.

Early turkey date is held in Detroit

ENJOYING AN early Thanksgiving last Sunday were the Roger Allins of Belleville Road who were in Detroit for the family get-together. Because their parents, the Franklin Allins, motor to their winter quarters in Florida at this time, the clan gathers prior to their departure for an early celebration of the holiday and to say 'so long.'

Others at the table were Tom and Bethann Swan of Dearborn Heights; Rodney and Carol Allyn and sons, Jeff and Brad, from Adrian; and Larry and Norma McClure and daughter, Wendy, of Redford.

Party time in Ann Arbor

THE EDWARD HUDGE'S recent move to Ann Arbor prompted their decision to toss a little party and say 'thanks' to those who helped with the hefty task of setting up a new household.

So — it was off to Woodside Road for some 11 Belleville couples who arrived bearing hors d'oeuvres and the ingredients and various dishes for a cocktail party and buffet supper.

The highlight of the evening came when Ed and Mary Anne presented their thank-you's in the form of gag gifts (which is one way to get rid of your excess discards!)

Here 'n there around the town

JON KOUBA was in from San Francisco recently for a visit with his parents, the Edward Koubas of E. Huron River Drive, and friends in the area. Jon, like many Michigan people who have adopted another state, was eager to see his home territory in all its fall glory. He was also entertained at a dinner party at the Saline home of his brother and sister-in-law, William and Patricia Kouba, who'd asked the William Petraskys and son, Bob, to join them. Spending several days in Ann Arbor, he visited friends, had dinner with one of his former professors, and also spent time interviewing law students ... HOME FOR a recent week-end from St. Joseph's Academy in Adrian was Mary Ann Krause, daughter of the William Krauses of E. Huron River Drive. With her for the visit was a classmate, Nora Breedlove, also a freshman, who is from Santo Domingo in the Dominican Republic ...

THE WINNERS — The distaff side of National Bank of Detroit, Belleville Branch, recently participated on the local level in the annual Goodfellow doll dressing contest. Top winner was Mrs. Barbara Dorsten (left) holding her prize-winning bride doll as well as the second place winner created by Mrs. Dorothy Merritt who was not available when the picture was taken. Mrs. Dorothy Ward (right) took third place with her Seminole Indian doll. The Belleville winners were to compete in the Detroit competition this past week-end. Last year they were successful in garnering a second and third place for their entries.

Education secretaries hold annual meeting

Wayne County education secretaries held their 16th annual meeting recently at the Sokol Cultural Center in Dearborn Heights. Theme for the program was "Setting Sights for the Seventies".

Three concurrent workshops included "The Miracle of Self-Discovery" led by Karen McCallum of Personal Achievement Institute; "Exciting Beauty Secrets" led by Judy March of John Roberts Powers School; and "Reading Dynamics" led by Mr. Bouser of the Evelyn Woods Reading Institute.

The Wayne County Association of Education Secretaries has been in existence since 1954 and has a present membership of more than 500 representing a majority of the school districts in Wayne County.

Membership is voluntary and the purpose of the association is to enhance the profession of school secretaries and office employees.

Newly-installed officers for 1970-71 include Clementine Payton, president, (Inkster); Marilyn Gass, vice-president (Gibraltar); Betty Pike, recording secretary (South Redford); Mildred Baker, corresponding secretary (Belleville); Rose Faust, treasurer (Dearborn); and Elizabeth Willing, historian (Northville.)

MISS SULLIVAN

Sullivans announce engagement

A December 12 wedding is being planned by Dorothy Lynne Sullivan of New Boston and Edward Allan Vartanian of Whitehall, Michigan. Their engagement and nuptial date are announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard F. Sullivan of 36970 Sibley Road, New Boston.

A graduate of St. Mary's High School, Wayne, and Michigan State University, where she affiliated with Delta Gamma Sorority, Miss Sullivan is currently employed at Crouse-Henderson Shoe Company, E. Lansing.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ajax Vartanian of 810 Slocum Drive, Whitehall. Presently employed with New England Life Insurance Company, he graduated from Michigan State University where he affiliated with Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity.

Miller-Sleep vows solemnized

MRS. ROGER MILLER

In an autumn candlelight ceremony at Trinity Episcopal Church, Debra Kaye Sleep became the bride of Roger Dean Miller. The double ring nuptials were read at seven in the evening by the Rev. Robert MacDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell C. Sleep of 9111 Stevens, Taylor, formerly of Romulus, are parents of the bride. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Miller of 11508 Pine, Taylor.

Donald Westphal of Westland, uncle of the bride, was at the organ to play traditional wedding selections.

FOR HER WEDDING, Miss Sleep chose a floor-length empire silhouette nylon chantilace gown with a be-ribboned and scalloped neckline and cuffs. Styling details also included long bouffant bell sleeves and a detachable wateau chapel train.

Organza petals studded with crystals and pearls secured her elbow-length veil and she carried white carnations, stephanotis and lilies of the valley centered with a detachable corsage.

Donna Jean King flew in from Wichita, Kansas to be matron of honor for her sister. She donned a deep lavender A-line empire nylon dotted swiss frock with long sleeves and lace accenting the neckline and cuffs. The nosegay she held was comprised of deep lavender carnations.

Wearing identical lavender gowns were Debbie Jump, Cathy Kurtz, cousin of the bride from Taylor, and Peggy Rattledge of Rockwood.

Five-year-old Shawn Wykoff of Romulus, cousin of the bridegroom, performed as flowergirl in an ensemble to match the honor attendant's.

THE BRIDEGROOM'S brother, Stanley Miller, was best man. Ushers were David

Sleep, brother of the bride; Terri Emigh of Taylor; and Robert Miller, brother of the bridegroom.

Ringbearer was Daniel Sleep of Southgate, nephew of the bride.

A reception in the church hall followed with some 200 guests attending including the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Clarence Sleep of Wayne, and the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Susan Wykoff of Houghton.

Mrs. Sleep chose for her daughter's wedding a deep purple dress with white accessories and a carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore pink linen with beige accessories and a carnation corsage in deep pink.

Both young people graduated from Kennedy High School, Taylor. The bridegroom is presently serving as an airman, first-class with the U.S. Air Force at Hickman Air Force Base in Honolulu, Hawaii where the newlyweds are now making their home. Prior to leaving for the Islands, the young couple honeymooned at Houghton Lake for several days.

Recent showers honor bride-elect

On Friday evening, October 30, bride-elect Virginia Derwinski of Wayne Road was honored at a miscellaneous shower given by aunts of the bridegroom-to-be, Mrs. Helen Hay and Mrs. Pearl Morris, at the Hay home on Huron River Drive.

A fall theme including candy Indian corn and rust colored mums was used in the decorations. About 25 relatives and friends were in attendance and enjoyed an evening of games, followed by a hot buffet lunch.

Virginia was showered with a fine assortment of gifts which she opened and displayed for the ladies present.

The bride-to-be was similarly honored at a miscellaneous shower October 11 given by her sister, Barbara Derwinski of Romulus and sister-in-law, Mrs. Sheri Derwinski of Dearborn Heights, at the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Derwinski of Wayne Road. Bingo and buncos games were enjoyed by the 30 ladies present.

Virginia will become the bride of William Diepenhorst, also of Romulus, on Saturday, November 14, in Ann Arbor.

TAKING ADVANTAGE of the recent long week-end with their children out of school, the Bill Johnsons of Merriman Road motored southward to visit relatives. With their four children, Diane, Barbara, Michele, and David in tow, the family stopped in Fostoria, Ohio for lunch with Bill's sister and husband, Jack and Tracy Jackson. From there they drove to Whitehall, Ohio for the remainder of their time with Mrs. J's parents, the Wilfred Olsons.

Birthday marked over luncheon

SURPRISING SOMEONE when that very person is suspicious of fact she's GOING to be surprised isn't always easy. But friends of Gwen Liebler managed to get her out for a morning of shopping last Wednesday and over to Weber's Inn for lunch, all with an ulterior motive — celebrating her birthday!

Having a hand in the hush-hush arrangements were Marge Roberts, Annette Palmer, Louise Hope, Jan Sierota, Helen Miller, Flo Hudge, Joy Hill, Mary Anne Hudge, and Lee Smith.

Western Wayne YWCA slates 'now' discussions

Following a newly-affirmed policy of involvement in current, controversial and relevant matters pertaining to women, the Western Wayne County YWCA is launching a series of four free discussion sessions that will feature speakers dealing with "now" problems and affairs of the "today" generation.

Tabbed "Woman Talk", the series will begin on Monday, at 9:30 a.m., Nov. 16, at the Dearborn Center, 1034 Monroe.

"Art Forms of Today's Generation" will be the first topic of the series. A panel comprised of a Presbyterian minister, a member of the cast of the Detroit production of "Hair", a designer of mod clothing and a Detroit disc jockey will put their thoughts against the traditions and mores of yesterday.

Subsequent sessions will deal with topics related to education, ecology, women's needs and wants. Prominent experts in those fields will debate their positions.

Dates for the discussions are four Mondays—Nov. 16, Nov. 30, Dec. 14 and Jan. 11.

Beverly PTA reports success

A well-attended Halloween carnival was reported by Mrs. Horace Stevens chairman for the event held at Beverly Elementary School.

More than 500 children were estimated to have come to the school on Saturday to enjoy games, prizes, food and costumes.

"Everyone had a wonderful time," said Mrs. Stevens. "We had 20 people who worked all afternoon and our principal, Terrel M. LeCesne was working at all the booths."

The affair earned $185 for the group's treasury during the four hours it was held.

Future plans are for a bazaar to be held during November, said Mrs. Stevens.

Auto mechanics taught

Auto mechanics classes are now being held twice weekly at the Romulus Senior High school under a new federally funded out-of-school youth vocational program.

Becoming the second of a proposed series of occupational training classes inaugurated this year, the group now has 15 members who meet on Thursday between 3 and 7 p.m. and on Saturday between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m.

Day School instructor E. L. Sheffield, is teaching the class, which is tuition free.

A cosmetology course, taught by Mrs. Althea Edleman is meeting Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday between 3 and 6 p.m.

Registrations for vocational classes are still being accepted by the state and federal

Jaycees consider program

The Community School Director of Huron Township Schools, Roger Benner, and the Secretary and treasurer of the Huron Township Jaycee Club Walter H. Cornell participated in the Big Brother Workshop held at Eastern Michigan University last week.

coordinator Mrs. Lorena Burton at the Romulus Board of Education. Phone, 941-1600. Any adult or youth between the ages of 16 and 29 years, who has not received his high school diploma, is eligible.

Following the workshop, they decided to make a study of the fatherless boys from eight to 18 years of age living within the Huron school district to better determine the need for a Big Brother Program in the township.

Big Brother is a program that is ideally designed to do something constructive to fill the important father-son relationship.

It is a basic program based upon the idea that a man concerned for his community volunteers for a male adult friendship with a boy who needs to relate to a male adult.

Plan sought to pay for police service

At a crowded public meeting Monday, members of the Law Enforcement and Public Safety Committee of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners told Sheriff William Lucas and a number of out-county law enforcement and other officials that they have six months to devise a plan for financing township patrol services that are now received free.

Also, in a move to protect the status of a pending federal grant, they recommend a $200,000 appropriation to be applied specifically toward the drug-fighting, highly publicized Metropolitan Squad.

Otherwise, the 2-1/2 hour meeting was an exercise in explanation and clarification on the part of the Commissioners, as they sought to correct the apparent misunderstandings of many of those in attendance.

In response to a request submitted by the Sheriff, the Commissioners passed a resolution which would authorize formation of a study committee, composed of representatives of the Board of County Auditors, the Sheriff's Department, and the Citizens Research Council of Michigan. This group would "meet with individual township supervisors about their needs and abilities to finance adequate law enforcement," as suggested by Sheriff Lucas in his written request.

The Commissioners added the six-month stipulation to this resolution, indicating a commitment to abolish free services gradually, not suddenly as many of the township officials seemed to believe. Commissioner Carl Pursell, of Plymouth, (R-District 26) stated emphatically that at no time did the Board intend to leave any township suddenly unprotected. "We always intended that the phase-out be gradual, not abrupt," he said.

Commissioner Paul Silver, of Detroit (D-District 11) said the real issue was not abolishment of services, but financing of services. "Who is going to pay for it?" he asked. Board Chairman, Albert Zak, of Hamtramck, (D-District 8) said the Study Committee in its quest for financial solutions, should consider such recourses as contractual arrangements and various reimbursement possibilities.

Both Wayne County and out-county officials offered repeated testimony favoring an increase in highly specialized activities, such as drug-trafficking and crowd control, for the Sheriff Department.

Police Chief William Turner of Southgate said he is definitely interested in having such services as the Metropolitan Squad expanded throughout the entire County. He further said the majority of the out-county areas which have their own police departments receive no benefit whatsoever from road patrol services.

4-H Fair Association picks officers, trustees

About 100 members and other interested citizens attended the Annual Meeting and Election of the Wayne County 4-H Fair Association Thursday evening, Nov. 5, at the 4-H Fairgrounds, located on Quirk Rd., Belleville.

The main order of business before the annual meeting, which started at 8 p.m., was the annual election of board members.

A prepared slate of nominees included the following: Robert Barrett, Robert Hayward, Edward Kentala, Frank Leonard, Glen Miller, Carl Morris, James Tillotson, Russell Magraw, Donald Curry, Melvin Wood, Frank Day, Orlo Roberts, Keith Forbush and Alice Wrigle, for three year terms.

David Wilkin, Bart Berg, John Ireland and Virginia Melcher were nominated for two year terms.

Elected for the three year term were Robert Hayward, Frank Leonard, Glen Miller, Carl Morris, James Tillotson, Russell Magraw, and Donald Curry. Two-year term electors were Bart Berg and John Ireland.

After naming the new board members, the entire board elected the following officers for the coming year: Robert Hayward, Belleville president; Carl Morris, Romulus, vice-president; Margaret Bunyea, Plymouth, treasurer; Philip Dingley, Canton Township, secretary.

Foster parents hold discussion

Foster Care sponsors who have accepted from one to eight children in their home participated in the first of a series of discussions at York Woods Center, Ypsilanti State Hospital last Thursday.

These substitute parents must be approved by the Department of Mental Health and are paid a stipend for the cost of food and housing.

The foster care program provides an opportunity for a normal home in the community for those children who cannot return to their own homes.

Seventeen children from York Woods Center are currently housed in foster care homes in Belleville, Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor, Milan, Saline, Maybee and Wayne County.

The children placed in foster care continue to receive outpatient services from the children's division at Ypsilanti State Hospital.

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

BY HAROLD REDISKE, DIRECTOR

Veteran's Day is naturally a day of nostalgia for those who bore the brunt of battle... Thoughts of infantry mobility, artillery range, paratroop landings, strategic targets missed or hit, front lines, trenches, fox holes, jungle trails, wounded pals, dead buddies—all these and other languishing thoughts persist.

For all of us, Veteran's Day causes us to think about—and honor—the millions who donned a uniform and served their country with pride and distinction. We think of those who faced enemy bullets and those who may yet have to face armed antagonists in an unpredictable future. We think of those who died in faraway lands—and those who may yet die in combat so that others may live in peace.

Veteran's Day is also a day of hope. A hope that some day boys of 19 will no longer have to fight the biggest fight of their lives—their fight to stay alive to reach an older age...

Child Clinic open on third Monday

Mothers of Romulus, Huron, Sumpter and Van Buren townships are reminded that a new Child Health and Immunization Clinic will be held at the United Methodist Church, 11190 Olive, Romulus, after noon on Nov. 16.

The clinic will be held the third Monday afternoon of each month to provide routine physicals, immunizations and tuberculin tests at a cost of $1. per child, per visit, announced the Wayne County Board of Health.

Open to all residents of areas mentioned, the clinic will be staffed by Health Department nurses and doctor.

Appointments can be made by calling 274-2800 or 721-0200, extension 6891.

Our men in service

Amy Pfc. Ernie L. Bradford, of Belleville, recently participated with his unit, the 4th Armored Division, in Deep Express, a three-week NATO field training exercise, in Turkey.

Deep Express, which was concluded Oct. 28, was another of NATO's periodic exercises involving the Ace Mobile Force (Land), AM-F(1), which is NATO's multinational quick-strike brigade.

Pfc. Bradford is regularly stationed in Germany as a jeep driver in Company A, 1st Battalion, 51st Infantry, 4th Armored Division.

Chester L. Bradford, live at 19522 Martinsville.

Amy Sgt. Richard W. Honey, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Honey, 44000 Clay Rd., Belleville, and Pvt. Michael D. Bunch, 20, son of Mrs. Ellen Dennett, 3762 Walnut Dr., Romulus, were among the 11,000 troops of the 1st Infantry Division, who left Ft. Riley, Kan., last month to be airlifted to Germany to participate in Exercise Reforger II.

Reforger II was designed to test U.S. Army deployment from stateside bases in defending western Europe with NATO forces. A similar exercise, Reforger I, was held in Germany in January, 1969.

HE'S OUTSTANDING - A state resolution in recognition of his "outstanding contributions to the health care field in Michigan" was presented to Dr. Karl S. Klicka (center), Executive Director of the Peoples Community Hospital.

Bahai grants awards, Group informed

The Bahai Group of Romulus has been notified of awards made by the U.S. Bahai community in connection with International Education Year (1970).

The Children's Television Workshop and Dr. James L. Oliver each received the 1970 Louis G. Gregory Award for Service to Humanity.

Presentation of the awards was made Oct. 17 at the International Education Year Awards Luncheon sponsored by the North American Bahai Office for Human Rights. The luncheon was held in the Terrace Ballroom of the Statler-Hilton Hotel, New York City.

Dr. Oliver, executive director of the Southwestern Cooperative Educational Laboratory, Albuquerque, N.M., received the award for his achievements in education and in particular for the furthering of the educational opportunities of minority groups.

The Children's Television Workshop of New York City was selected for the award because of its production of the television series "Sesame Street" and its other efforts on behalf of education.

The award, established 1968 by the U.S. National Bahai Assembly, is named in honor of a black American who served on the first U.S. National Bahai administrative body and who was a leader in human rights efforts during the early years of this century.

The awards are original pieces by the noted American sculptor and Bahai Bernon Voelz of Sarasota, Fla.

The presentation of the awards climaxed a year of extensive activities on behalf of International Education Year by the Bahai Faith in the United States. NABOHR has sponsored two national conferences and three regional conferences on various aspects of education.

The Bahai Faith originated in Persia (now Iran) in 1844. Bahauallah, Prophet-Founder of the Faith, taught that God is one, the oneness of religions and the oneness of mankind. The Bahai Faith is now established in over 300 countries and territories and in some 3,000 localities in the United States.

The national center of the Faith is in Wilmette, Ill., on Chicago's north shore. The world center is located on Mt. Carmel in the Holy Land.

Scary stories highlight Cub Pack meeting

Goblins, pirates, monsters and spooks of all sizes invaded the meeting of Cub Scout Pack 830, when they met recently at Hayti Elementary School.

Costumed Cubs, leaders and parents divided into teams for games and races, reported Pack spokesman, Mrs. Nolene Sussene.

A new Den Mother and Webelo Leader were welcomed by the pack. Mrs. Jean Maner became the newest Den Mother and Art

Brown begins his duties as Webelo Leader at the first meeting on Nov. 18.

Awards were presented by Cubmaster Jack Rarick. Bobcat awards went to Dean Aldrich, Dale Whitley, Keith Mergel, Kevin Mergel, Carl Ellis, Howard Maner, Larry Dobbin, Dale LaLonde, and Mark Synegrski.

Ghost stories and Halloween songs were presented.

Wolf Badges were awarded to Kirk Hudson, John Gray, Greg Losacco and John Bozelak.

Gold Arrows went to Kirk Hudson, John Gray, Greg Losacco and John Bozelak. Silver Arrows were earned by John Gray (two), and John Bozelak.

Cider and doughnuts were donated by Alvin McKay and the evening was preserved on film by Mrs. Margaret Matland.

Motion by Oakley, supported by Pennington, that Resolution No. 70-107 (Community Relations Commission) be adopted by the City Council.

RESOLUTION NO. 70-107

A RESOLUTION creating a Community Relations Commission for the City of Romulus, Michigan, consisting of fifteen members appointed by the Mayor with the approval of the City Council, to serve without compensation, defining the functions and duties of the commission and objectives sought to be accomplished, and providing for the organization and operation of the commission.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF ROMULUS, MICHIGAN:

Section 1. Policy. A commission is hereby created through which the City of Romulus, Michigan, officially may encourage and bring about mutual understanding and respect among all groups in the City, eliminate prejudice, intolerance, bigotry, discrimination and disorder occasioned thereby, and give effect to the guarantee of equal rights for all assured by the Constitution and the laws of this state and of the United States of America.

Section 2. Community Relations Commission. There is hereby created a Community Relations Commission for the City of Romulus, Michigan. It shall consist of fifteen members, serving without compensation, to be appointed by the Mayor with approval of the City Council. The members shall be chosen from the various racial, religious, and ethnic groups, community organization, labor organization, and other groups and agencies concerned with human relations in the City of Romulus. The Mayor shall request the representative groups to submit names from their membership for the Mayor to consider for appointment to the commission. Of the fifteen members first appointed, five shall be appointed for one year, five for two years and five for three years; thereafter all appointments to the commission shall be for a term of three years. Any member may be removed by the Mayor with the approval of the City Council for good cause. In the event of death, resignation or removal of any member, his successor shall be appointed by the Mayor with the approval of the City Council to serve for the unexpired period of the term for which such member had been appointed. Eight members of the commission shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Section 3. Officers and Committees: The commission at its organizational meeting and each annual meeting thereafter shall elect from the membership a chairman, a vice chairman; and a secretary; provided that no member shall serve in the same office for more than one (1) year in succession. The chairman, vice-chairman, and secretary shall have and perform such duties as are commonly associated with their respective titles. The officers of the commission shall be and constitute the executive committee of the commission which shall exercise such powers of the commission between its regular meetings as may be authorized by the commission. The commission shall be further authorized to appoint and fix membership of such number of standing and temporary committees as it may find expedient for the performance of its duties.

Section 4. Meetings. The Community Relations Commission shall meet at least ten times a year at such time and place as shall be fixed by the commission by its standing rules. Meetings shall be called by the chairman, or in his absence by the vice-chairman. All members shall be notified of meetings at least forty-eight hours in advance. The commission shall prepare its own agenda for all meetings and establish its own rules of order or adopt Robert's Rules of Order for the conduct of its meetings.

Minutes of all meetings shall be filed with the City Clerk and copies furnished to the Mayor and City Council.

Section 5. Functions. The functions, duties, and powers of the commission shall be:

a. To foster mutual understanding and respect among all racial, and nationality groups in the City of Romulus. It shall discourage discriminatory practices among any such groups, or any of its members. It shall cooperate with City, State, and Federal agencies as well as with non-governmental organizations; it shall examine and make such studies in any field of human relations as in the judgment of the Community Relations Committee will aid in effectuating its general purpose.

b. To study and examine problems arising between people or groups in the City of Romulus which may result in tensions, discrimination or prejudice on account of race, color, creed, national origin or ancestry.

c. To formulate and carry out programs of community education and information with the object of discouraging and eliminating any such tensions, prejudice or discrimination.

d. To receive and investigate complaints of (1) Racial, religious and ethnic group tensions, prejudices, intolerance, bigotry and disorder occasioned thereby; (2) discrimination against any person, group, of persons, organizations or corporation. The commission shall seek to correct practices of discrimination through negotiation and education.

e. To issue such publications and reports of examinations and research as in its judgment will tend to minimize or eliminate prejudice, intolerance, race or area tensions and discrimination or which will promote or tend to promote goodwill.

f. To strive to secure the cooperation of various racial, religious, nationality and ethnic groups, formal or informal groupings in the community, veterans' organizations, fraternal, benevolent and service groups, in educational campaigns devoted to the need for eliminating group prejudice, racial or area tensions, intolerance and discrimination.

g. To cooperate with other public governmental or private agencies in developing course of instruction for presentation in public and/or private schools, in public libraries, or any other suitable place, showing and illustrating the contributions of various religions, nationality and ethnic groups to the culture, tradition and progress of the City, State and Nation, and further showing the deplorable effects and menace of prejudice, intolerance, discrimination, racial, and area tensions.

h. To cooperate with Federal, State, County and City agencies and departments which request advice in carrying out projects within their respective authorities to eliminate inter-group tensions, and to promote inter-group harmony. It shall recommend to the Mayor and to the City Council measures, including proposed Ordinances or Resolutions, aimed at improving the ability of the various City departments and agencies to insure protection of any and all persons and groups from discrimination because of race, color, creed, national origin and ancestry. It shall advise said officials on any matters involving civil rights or the violation thereof that may come to its attention.

i. To prepare and submit reports to the Mayor and City Council or its activities. At least one report shall be made annually.

Section 6. All Resolutions or parts of Resolutions in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 7. This Resolution shall take effect immediately.

Roll call vote showing: Ayes: Raspberry, Pennington, Bizek, Block, Oakley, Edwards, Stewart. Motion carried.

Motion by Oakley, supported by Edwards, that the following people be appointed to the Community Relations Commission as recommended by the Mayor:

Roll call vote showing: Ayes: Raspberry, Pennington, Bizek, Block, Oakley, Edwards, Stewart. Nays: None. Motion carried unanimously.

9. Motion by Stewart, supported by Oakley, that the council adopt Resolution No. 70-180.

RESOLUTION NO. 70-180

WHEREAS: The City of Romulus deems the welfare of its citizens to be one of its first priorities, and

WHEREAS: The City of Romulus feels that an increase in the County Disposal Rates prior to proper action being taken to remove any and all illegal taps would be a direct infringement on the welfare of its citizens.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: That the City of Romulus be recorded as opposing any rate increase in the County Sewage Disposal Rates until proper action is taken to remove any and all illegal taps, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That an accounting be made to the City of Romulus and/or any other community in the Downriver Sewage Disposal System who have endured harm in any one or more of the several ways caused by the illegal tapings that have been made.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That a copy of this Resolution be forwarded to the Wayne County Road Commission and each community party to the Downriver Sewage Disposal System.

Roll call vote showing: Ayes: Oakley, Block, Stewart, Bizek, Pennington, Edwards, Raspberry. Nays: None. Motion carried unanimously.

11. Motion by Pennington, supported by Oakley, that Warrant No. 19 be approved as presented. Roll call vote

PTA ideas mulled

New ideas, program suggestions and proposed projects occupied the early morning meeting of Cory Elementary School's PTA Monday, (Nov. 2).

The Meeting was conducted in the school multipurpose room. The group of approximately 35 people discussed programs they would like to have during the coming year, while they enjoyed refreshments from a seasonally decorated table.

Much interest was displayed for an informational meeting concerning drugs and the extent of their usage in the Romulus area.

Questions were raised about scouting activities and it was decided that a program would be presented that would inform parents about cost, adult participation and uniform requirements. James W. Petre, program chairman, will arrange for a speaker, he said.

Plans were made for a Christmas party for the children and chairmen were given suggestions concerning favors.

A school fair date of May 15, was selected. The fair theme has not yet been decided upon.

Any person 12 years or older is eligible to buy a resident Michigan hunting license if he or she has actually lived in the state for 6 consecutive months immediately before applying to purchase the license.

Sumpter students safe on Halloween

Sumpter Elementary School held its second annual Halloween party recently. The children had games and contests in the rooms followed by an age-level costume judging. Then came refreshments and judging of adult costumes.

The evening ended with a bag of candy and an apple for every child.

Thomas McLendon, principal, said "Thanks to the fine parents of our parent-teacher organization, my staff, civic clubs and concerned business people, many children enjoyed a 'safe' and enjoyable evening of fun. This includes preschoolers and teenagers. "I would like especially extend my appreciation to the Belleville Kiwanians and Rotarians, Mr. Grover of South Huron Orchards, the Sumpter Social Civic Club, Walt's Shell Service, Monties Grocery, Seitz Grocery, Rose's Market, Foodville and Ben Franklin 5 and 10".

Rhoads calls for cooperation

A statement calling for unity and cooperation in township government was issued Monday by Douglas C. Rhoads, newly elected Huron Township supervisor.

"The voters have spoken at the polls and it is now the responsibility of those elected to work together to solve the problems of the township in the spirit of bi-partisanship," Rhoads said.

The first responsibility of the township board is to work for the best interest of the entire township, Rhoads stated. He added he is hopeful that this will be accomplished.

He further stated that he and his family appreciate the support and well wishes of the electorate in the Nov. 3 general election.

The new township board member will assume their township duties on Nov. 20.

HARVEST TIME

Bitter-sweet and gourds
Grow upon my fence,
Even winter squashes; for
We go to greatest lengths
To have a store for winter,
Of vegetables and fruit,
We even scout the country side,
To gather extra loot.

We find all kinds of greens,
Asparagus and kale,
And pack into Mason jars
Fruits that were on sale.

Pecans and butter nuts,
And black walnuts too,
Even the watermelons
And the honeydew.

And a few fall flowers
Just for decoration.
Don't you think that harvest time
Is worth a celebration?

Gas company now can penalize

Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. has been authorized to penalize large industrial customers who fail to curtail use of gas when requested to do so.

Michigan Consolidated told the Public Service Commission (PSC) of the Michigan Department of Commerce that most of its large customers abide by all requests to curtail service when asked to do so.

However, the utility said, some customers either exercise undue delay "or habitually plead that some unforeseen emergency"

Smith is owner and operator of the George Smith Real Estate, Inc., 2216 S. Wayne Rd., Westland.

Raffle Chairman Thomas Hamlin reported that this year's Cadillac Raffle, the club's second, was a "tremendous success." He and his co-chairmen Herman Rossi and Leo Gramlich issued a joint statement of thanks to all who participated.

The proceeds of the raffle are used for St. Anthony's Parish School.

Winners of $100 bonds were A.J. Kaminski, Cecilia Rossi, Larry McDonnell, Nick Nehez, Alro Nardine, John Basher, Robert Memering, Mary Kosin, Landy Box, William Szlinis, Andrew Thom and Ed Dulecki.

Winner of the $100 cash prize was William Anglum.

The raffle and dinner was held at Rogalle's Supper Lounge. At the raffle dinner were 105 of the 125 ticket purchasers, Hamlin reported.

Congressman tells of exam for summer jobs

Congressman William D. Ford (15th District) announced this week that examinations for summer jobs with the Federal Government next year have been scheduled by the U.S. Civil Service Commission.

Residents of the 15th Congressional District may take the examination on Jan. 9 Feb. 13, or March 13, 1971.

"Applications must be filed five weeks in advance of the test date. Applications postmarked after Feb. 3, 1971, will not be accepted."

"Agencies generally begin making selections after applicants for the first test have been entered on the list of eligibles," Ford said.

"Therefore, the earlier the test is taken, the greater will be the chances for selection."

Complete details and application forms may be obtained by writing to Congressman Ford at 125 Cannon House Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20515.

Ford noted that college students who will have completed at least two years of college work by next June, and who have a grade-point average of 3.5 on a 4.0 scale, may qualify without taking the written test. Students majoring in engineering, physical science or architecture may qualify with a 3.0 average.

Applicants who received an eligible notice of rating for 1970 summer employment do not have to take the written test for consideration in 1971 unless they wish to retake the test to improve their scores. These applicants have been sent special forms on which to update their qualifications and indicate their availability next summer.

Ford emphasized that the number of openings is relatively small, and that only a small percentage of applicants are hired.

Romulus eyes 3rd straight grid win

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

Would you believe three in a row for Romulus' football team?

It's a possibility, a real possibility.

After a depressing start in which coach George Pratt's

Eagles dropped six in a row before they broke the streak at the expense of Willow Run, Romulus blasted league defector Hamtramck 30-12 for its best all-round performance of the season last Friday to make it two straight.

The second victory was really encouraging, according to the Romulus coach who will be confronted with a hapless — but capable — Dearborn Heights Robichaud team for the curtain drawer.

"They beat Belleville," said coach Pratt, alluding to Friday's opponent. "So they do have the potential. Let's hope that they don't hit that potential against us."

Romulus will hit the road for the final encounter which is set for 3:30 p.m.

The victory over Hamtramck, which was once a Twin-Valley Conference member, cost the Eagles their veteran halfback Tony Hoffman who scored one of four touchdowns his team scored against the Cosmos.

Hoffman, a senior, was hospitalized for a possible kidney injury.

A HELPING BODY — Romulus' Tony Hoffman (27) picks up his interference in teammate Bryon Ashley (67) in the battle for yardage against nonleague rival Hamtramck. The Eagles had a easy time of it as they registered their second victory of the season.

Huron hangs on to win

Whatever the outcome of Friday's Huron - Flat Rock conference football game, coach Lee Smeltzer and the Chiefs, with their latest 10-7 victory over Grosse Ile, can boast a record season.

Huron has piled up a 6-2 over-all record which surpasses the best performance by any other Huron team.

"You have to be proud of these boys," said coach Smeltzer who will round out his second year as head coach at the New Boston High School. "They never quit."

Huron's previous best record was posted by their 1963 model which finished with a 5-3 record. The Chief could make it 7-2 but that have a tough job on their hand with Flat Rock, a team, though seated in fifth place with a 3-4 record, is capable and sound.

"We can't take anyone lightly," said coach Smeltzer. "They will be gunning for us and we aren't going to sit back and relax."

Huron will host the conference finale on Friday. Kickoff is scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

It took Romulus 10 plays and 75 yards to break the ice against the Cosmos who had difficulty stopping the slants of Brent Hamilton. Hamilton would up with a total of 146 yards — 41 of those on eight rushes and three receptions for 105 yards.

Hamilton sprinted around and midway in the initial quarter to score from nine yards out to give the Eagles the lead which they never relinquished.

Romulus was the beneficiary of a second quarter touchdown thanks to a Hamtramck miscue which resulted in the Eagles getting the ball on their visitors' nine yard line via a poor snap from center. Two plays later, Tony Hoffman slipped off right tackle to score and Ken McManis tossed to Perry Gray for the two point conversion to give the Eagles a 14-0 halftime edge.

Romulus exploded for two more touchdowns in the fourth being held scoreless in the third quarter. The Eagles raced 92-yards in two plays as quarterback Virgil Smith hooked up with Perry Gray for a 25-yard aerial which netted them a 25-yard gain, then a Smith-to-Hamilton pass-run play polished off 70-yards and the third touchdown.

McMann's jaunt resulted in the two-point conversion.

Hamtramck momentarily stunned the Eagles when Jim Wynn grabbed the ensuing kickoff and raced 75-yards with it for the Cosmos' first touchdown. Then Charles Moore came up with a 25-yard touchdown sprint to narrow the margin to 22-12. But the Eagles recovered their poise, and with Smith guiding them put together a seven play, 41 yards drive that gave them Huron broke a scoreless first quarter deadlock with Grosse Ile thanks to a nine yard aerial that ended in the hands of Tom Umin, tossed there by quarterback Butch Suemnick.

Glen Dregansky booted the extra point to make it 7-0 and that's how the score stood until the third quarter when Dregansky kicked a 24-yard field goal which eventually proved to be the decisive goal.

Grosse Ile countered midway in the final quarter with a 49-yard touchdown run by Scott Cline and the game took on a completely different complexion when Chris Kuhn booted the extra point which shoved the host within three points of tying the game.

Huron's defense, however, led by Chuck Inman who made seven unassisted tackles, and

SHAKING OFF A COSMOS - Momentarily halted in his bid for a touchdown, Romulus' Brent Hamilton shook off this flying Hamtramck griddler to sprint into the end zone for Romulus' initial touchdown in the opening quarter. The Eagles didn't stop there as they came up with another tally in the second frame and two more in the finale en route to a 30-12 nonleague victory.

Andersen 5th in state

Garden City West's Donnie Andersen, fighting injury and a fall at the half-mile mark, sprinted back to place fifth at the State Class "A" Cross Country finals held at Eastern Michigan University on Saturday.

Andersen suffering from tendonitis came back to cross the finish line in 13:02.4. The time earned for him a fifth place and a berth on the All-State team.

Andersen also earned all-state honors as a junior.

"This boy never gives up," commented West coach Bill Pinnell. "And I can only speculate but I don't think anyone could have maintained his pace if he hadn't been ill."

Kearsley captured the state Class A high school cross country championship Saturday by the narrow margin of two points.

Flint scored the victory by posting 111 points, the low

Christian, and Don Andersen of Garden City West.

Grand Rapids West Catholic won the Class B title with 127 points, followed by Fenton, 135; Detroit East Catholic, 143; Harper Creek, 144; and Rogers City, 189. Don Tammingas of Grand Rapids Central Christian finished first in the individual race with a 12:50.6.

MSU has 'live wires'

Michigan State junior quarterback Mike Rasmussen of Fresno, Calif. tossed four touchdowns passes in State's 32-7 win over Indiana to set a team mark for a Big Ten game.

Michigan State sophomore linebacker Ernie Hamilton of Greenville, S.C. was credited with 12 solo tackles in State's win over Indiana. It was 'only the second game he'd played the position.

score in the class competition. In second place with 113 was St. Joseph, followed by Clarkston with 136 and Farmington with 164.

Defending champion Ann Arbor Huron finished fifth with 171.

Others in the top ten were Bay City Central, 214; Pontiac Northern, 217; Birmingham Brother Rice, 229; Birmingham Seaholm, 264; and Grand Rapids Creston, 273.

Birmingham Seaholm's Mike Giller took the individual title on a clocking of 12:34.3 over the 2 1/2 mile distance.

In the special Class A race for individuals whose teams did not make the grade, Tom Levensgood of Bay City Handy was first across the finish line in 12:56.

He was followed by Dave Burkhardt of Southgate, Jeff Cornell of Lansing Eastern, Jeff Dixon of Grand Rapids

'Miracle' of New Orleans
By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

You know I really got to feel sorry for Tom Dempsey the unfortunate New Orleans kicker who Sunday booted the 63-yard field goal that gave the Saints a last second 19-17 victory over the shocked Detroit Lions.

No, not because of Dempsey's personal handicap. (He was born without a hand and part of his foot) or because he bested Bert Rechbacher's record of 56 yards back in 1956.

No, the reason I got to feel sorry is that from now on when he has "easy field goals" of say 35 yards, 45 yards, 50 yards and he accidentally misses, just think what saps in the stands will be shouting.

After a sixty-three yard field goal, now what? No, sophist, don't start the count down to a 100, I know the length of the field is.

But, really, Dempsey has just booted the fun out of football. He admitted that before a nationwide TV audience when he commented: "This (the 63-yard goal) could change the whole concept of the game."

A New Era For Football?

And if you pause just a minute and visualize what the guy is trying to say, you can't help but agree.

If you can kick them from 60, then why not at 70 or 80?

You can bet that many coaches will go into the huddle after this one.

And what will really come out of it, one will have to wait and see.

But, when all is said and done, you couldn't help feel "sorry" for Lion mentor Joe Schmidt. He must still be walking in a daze and it's unlikely that he will snap out of it before next Sunday's Minnesota Vikings game.

That game, incidentally, takes on a completely different sort of complexion, doesn't it.

If Joe was saying: "We're still not out of it," referring to the title race after his team's loss to the Vikings a couple of weeks ago, this Sunday's match up will be a "do-or-die" battle. A Lions' defeat would about pound the final nail in the coffin, wouldn't it?

And some are saying that the Lions will need something more than a miracle or quarterback Bill Munson to bring the team back to normalcy after the "miracle at New Orleans".

But miracles are not an every day or every week happening.

As Wayne Walker, Detroit's All-Pro linebacker commented after the game, "Tom Dempsey didn't kick that field goal, God kicked it."

If that be so, Wayne, then the Saints are justly named.

ON THE RUN - With a Hamtramck griddler closing in on him, Romulus sophomore quarterback Virgil Smith (10) eyes his possible receivers. Smith tied a couple of touchdown passes Friday afternoon to lead the Eagles to their second straight

Tigers to host Glenn for finale

Coaches have this feeling about losing — it just isn't a good feeling. But, losing during the season doesn't hurt as much as losing the last one, the mentors say and they offer this argument: That the last loss sticks with you until the next year.

So, when Belleville and John Glenn clash here Friday night the Tigers and coach Keith Emerson will be out to wipe out their depressing season with a victory over the nonleague Westland visitors.

The Tigers wiped Glenn out last year and they feel that they could do it again this season — but "all things must fall into place."

"They are a tough group over there," said coach Emerson who will be rounding out his first season as Belleville's head coach. "But I feel we have matured these past two weeks to give them all they can handle. And only time will decide if I'm right."

Emerson and the Tigers, however, had a rough time of it against a fired-up Ypsilanti team which took the wrath of losing a share of the last Sauk Trail title to Wayne Memorial the previous week out of the Tigers.

Ypsilanti, ranked third until the Wayne game, slipped somewhere in the honorable mention column after the loss.

"We played with them, but our mistakes hurt us."

With those words, Emerson summed up the Tiger's 35-13 setback at the hands of the powerful Ypsilanti Braves.

Emerson is pleased with the efforts put forth by his players so far this year. He says he is more satisfied now than he has been for a long time.

He feels that the Tiger defense handled Ypsilanti's dangerous runningback, Rufus Powell and that Belleville's Garrade Pettus matched Powell's performance.

"Pettus played his best game of the year," Emerson said. "He made some real good, jarring tackles."

Belleville got onto the scoreboard in the second period with a five yard scoring toss by Mike Garland to Tony Ogletree with the point after conversion by Steve Billings.

In the final stanza, Garland found sophomore Jerry Pate in the open and heaved a scoring pass that covered 40 yards.

Emerson also cited four sophomores for their stand out performances. John Alford, Les Crawford, Mike Densard and Pate. He said that this type of talent holds a bright future for Belleville football.

Emerson also congratulated Dave Yocum for his efforts at defensive end.

"I was happy with the way we played up to our potential for 48 minutes," Emerson said. "We beat ourselves but we did carry the play to them."

Emerson sees a future in the younger players who are really playing good football in his opinion.

With still one game to go against John Glenn's Rockets, Emerson said that he is pleased with the efforts his players are making on the field.

110 business people attend sales clinic

Over one hundred persons attended the Enterprise-Roman Retail Sales Clinic last Wednesday evening at Rogalles Lounge.

The clinic, attended by retail sales people in the Belleville, Romulus areas, was conducted by Guy Painter, Sr., internationally known sales analyst. Painter is associated with Canadian Media Services of Vancouver, B.C., Canada.

The clinic was held to kick off the eight-week Bazaar of Values now underway in the Enterprise-Roman. This is the first week of the big sales event.

The eight-week event, in which cash prizes are awarded each week to some lucky consumer, points up the advantages of shopping in your own community.

Daily Eagle Review:

'Five Easy Pieces' offers little magic

Columbia Pictures presents a BBS production, "Five Easy Pieces," directed by Bob Rafelson, screenplay by Adrien Joyce, story by Rafelson and Joyce, produced by Rafelson and Richard Wechsler, executive producer Bert Schneider. Color. With the following cast: Jack Nicholson, Karen Black, Susan Anspach.

By HOWARD ALLEN

Eagle Movie Critic
A somewhat high-flown director in "Light Up the Sky" made a reference to what he called "magic time" on opening night, but Jack Nicholson, despite offering a truly brilliant performance in Bob Rafelson's "Five Easy Pieces," has very little magic to offer.

Generally speaking, a protagonist should hope to strike a few sparks with his audience, but Nicholson creates no warm rapport nor even a little healthy hatred. At best he can be pitied—slightly; he certainly isn't worth too much effort.

It would be difficult to dispute the artistic merits of "Five Easy Pieces," for Rafelson is a creative director who can view celluloid like canvas and can carry a camera like Orson Wells. Add a cast of the highest rank and you have practically everything except a story. Nicholson is constantly fleeing from values he rejects and he rejects almost every value. His life in a family of concert musicians is stifling and he has embarked on the most aimless of lives, finally taking up with a non-intellectual girl, Karen Black, a country music buff and utterly the antithesis of his relatives. Ultimately, this life palls as much as the former one.

Rayette, the girl, becomes pregnant and Nicholson is on the verge of deserting her when he learns that his father is gravely ill from a stroke and he must return home—with Rayette. The triangle forms when he meets his stuffy brother's wife, witty, warm and intelligent.

Fortunately, she's a bit too intelligent to have too much to do with her brother-in-law and Nicholson starts feeling hemmed in again.

Nicholson views his character as knowing what is true and what is false and avoiding the traps set for him. He does not sense that life is one continual trap and that if you can't adjust you can never be happy.

"Five Easy Pieces" mixes and blends assorted styles, country crackers and urban intellectuals and the result might have been more interesting as an experimental piece than as a Hollywood product. It has been a popular film festival entrant, probably an appropriate milieu for it.

Despite a few delightful moments, such as when Nicholson picks up a hitchhiker, Helena Kallianiotis, a fanatic on filth of the world, "Five Easy Pieces," is unquestionably the sort of film that gets nixed in the sticks.

CELEBRATED COUPLE — Richard Dwyer and Susan Berens team up for some of the most delightful sequences in "The New Ice Age." The Ice Follies of 1971 plays the Olympia Stadium tomorrow through Nov. 22, for a 10-day run.

Snoopy stars in Ice Follies at Olympia

Detroit and its neighboring communities will be treated to the all-new 1971 Ice Follies, featuring special guest star Peggy Fleming, when it starts at Olympia Stadium Thursday and runs through Nov. 22.

In addition to Miss Fleming, the U.S. Golf Medal Olympic winner in 1968 and a three-time world champion in figure skating, there will be a surprise star.

The dauntless "Snoopy," flop-eared comic strip favorite of "Peanuts" fame, will be on the ice as "The World Famous Skater." This may startle not only the audience, but the usually unflappable Miss Fleming as well, as this fugitive from his pal, Charlie Brown, takes off across the ice.

A number of new stars as well as past-show favorites will be on hand for this new version of one of America's best-loved family entertainment spectacles.

Among the new faces, and figures will be Kathy Miller as a soloist skater, Nancy and Leandre as a synchronized adagio team and Canadian star Jay Humphrey, figure skating champion for two years running.

The familiar faces who will be on hand are Dick Dwyer, celebrating his 21st year with the show; the durable "Dean of Ice Comics," Mr. Frick, entering his 33rd year with the Follies, and Susan Berens. There will also be Jill Shipstad, the Kaufmans and many more who have charmed Olympia audiences in past years.

Miss Fleming, skates as guest star in selected cities. Detroit is one of them. Her skill, loveliness and charming manner have made her a favorite wherever she has appeared—whether as an Olympic star in France or a stand-out attraction in Ice Follies presentations around the country.

Ice Follies' theme will feature both hard and soft "rock" numbers.

Weekend art exhibit planned by area club

The Farmington Artist Club presents its 12th exhibit Friday through Sunday at the Farmington Masonic Temple at Farmington Rd. and Grand River Ave.

The club is beginning its sixth year and has over 100 members from Livonia, Farmington, Birmingham and other surrounding communities. The semi-annual exhibit features a wide variety of styles, techniques and media.

Judges for the show are two notables from the art world: Robert Thom of Birmingham and Royal Marshall of Lake Orion. Prizes will be awarded in several categories.

Thom came to Detroit 30 years ago and has achieved success on an international scale. His eye for detail led him to do a series of historically significant paintings on medicine and pharmacy for the Parke-Davis Pharmaceutical Company, a series for the states of Michigan and Illinois and most recently a history for the Kimberly Clark Corp and the Michigan Bell Telephone Company.

Marshall is a design and color engineer currently involved with PPG Industries and the University of Michigan.

The exhibit hall will be open from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Friday and Saturday and 12 noon to 8 p.m. on Sunday.

Daily Eagle Review:

Play directed with heavy hand

The Wayne State University Theatre presents "Room Service," a farce in three acts by John Murray and Allen Boretz, directed by Robert T. Hazzard, sets by Russell Smith, costumes by Vic Leverett, lighting by Gary M. Witt. Enters the repertory of the Hilberry Classic Theatre through May 29 with the following cast: John H. Napierala, Woody Eney, Robert Renning, Howard Jensen, Jeffrey O. Rodman, Layne Littlepage, James Ryan, Susan Kramer, James S. Newell, Jon Benson, James Corrigan, Michael Miner, Terry S. Baker, Robert Jackson.

By HOWARD ALLEN

Eagle Drama Critic
Any 10 drawing room comedies you'd care to name probably won't produce as much side-splitting laughter as one healthy farce, so it is particularly unsatisfying to note that Robert T. Hazzard has directed "Room Service," the first new production in the repertory of the Wayne State University Hilberry Classic Theatre season, with as heavy a hand as a pile-driver.

"Room Service," the veteran John Murray-Allen Boretz romp staged successfully by George Abbott in the late 30's and later made into a Marx Brothers film, requires at least the abandonment of Floogie Street and this sense of acrobatic brassiness was present in last year's notable off-Broadway revival.

The Hilberry production at best pays only passing obeisance to the mad pace required to make an audience ignore the play's tissue-paper flimsiness and the result is a large and generous portion of respectful silence in the auditorium.

Gordon Miller is a shoe-string producer desperately trying to keep his cast together while he seeks a backer. He cons his brother-in-law, a Times Square hotel manager, into housing his cast, feeding them and letting them rehearse, running up a $1,200 tab. Then the owner sends in a hatchet man to check the books.

What follows should be sheer hysteria as Miller seeks to keep himself and his cast one jump ahead of eviction and hang on to a backer. The play's naive out-state author, newly arrived in the big city with argyle socks and a picture of mom, is conned into pretending illness so Wagner, the hatchet man can't evict him. The cast, locked out of their rooms, are sneaked into the theatre. And finally, Miller seeks to put the production on in five days, using hotel money to get costumes and a set, on the strength of a rubber check which Wagner believes is from a real backer.

When, seconds before the curtain is to rise, Wagner learns the check has bounced and plans to call the sheriff to shut down the show, the author fakes swallowing iodine to pretend suicide.

Russell Smith has provided a sumptuously handsome frame work, sort of early Bijou, but for the most part the cast is not up to it. Woody Eney, as Miller, lacks sufficient con; the leading lady, Layne Littlepage, is bogus Mae West,

Howard Jensen as the director is far too staid. Occasional touches are provided by John H. Napierala as a mad Russian actor, by James Ryan as the hick author and by James S. Newell as the bombastic Wagner. But most of the blame is clearly Hazzard's.

A mini-nap lasts from 10 to 15 seconds. When I repeatedly reported the erroneous claim that udder was the only word in English that begins with ud, it was during mini-naps. That is said to account for the fact that a 17-year-old California high school student recently appeared to stay awake for 12 days, almost. To be exact, 286 hours. Believe that's the world's stay-awake record, so far.

If you want to get some idea of how long girls have been using makeup, consider this. In the British Museum in London is a female mummy. She's about 5,000 years old. All of her fingernails and toenails too are painted red. When the temperature drops below zero, there is no fog where there are no people. Men make fog all right in sub zero weather, men and their machinery and their buildings and their animals. But nature never does.

Writes an Iowa wife: "Years ago I learned my husband was far more interested in the aromas of food than of flowers. So do you know what I use for perfume? Vanilla extract sometimes. Oil of wintergreen. Essence of peppermint. I even dab a little Accent on me, or, yeast. He loves the smell of fresh bread."

Brief dialogue - "They had to shoot old Fido." "Was he mad?" "Well, he wasn't too pleased."

Recently reported the psychiatrist is the professional man most apt to take his own life. However, latest statistics indicate the dentist likewise appears far more suicide-prone than average. Theorists conclude therefrom that the practice of looking into other people's mouths is almost as demoralizing as looking into their minds. A little flip maybe, but the facts are accurate.

Customer service - Q. "Is there any country where the women are taller than the men?" A. Know of none. Average man worldwide is 6 per cent taller than the average woman, even among the pygmies. Q. "Was there a real Peter Pan?" A. So to speak. The playwright Sir James M. Barrie drew his character from one Peter Llewellyn Davies who died about 10 years ago.

You might spring these rhetorical inquiries at the dinner table. Like, quick, what's the only state in the Union that was once an independent monarchy? Hawaiians need not reply. Oh, come on, if you can't name the only two bachelors ever to become President of the U.S., your old history teacher will be pretty upset with you. True, Buchanan and Cleveland. All right, how about identifying the only two countries that ever held national elections in the midst of all-out war. Sure enough, the U.S. and south Vietnam.

from the Carroll Richter Institute

General tendencies: You feel you are held back by some important matter in your life. But a new and intelligent approach to smaller affairs of daily living will be successful. Take some time out to assure those who expect much of you that you won't disappoint them.

Aries (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) You must have patience if you want to handle those monetary matters intelligently and profitably today. A person you know has the answers to your personal questions, and their advice will make you happier.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) Your relations with a partner could prove quite difficult if you insist on harping on the past. Think in terms of the future instead. Work on those behind-the-scenes matters that are important.

Gemini (May 21 to June 21) Do something constructive about personal worries and you can later go out with friends for recreational or other purposes. Do not take your business worries with you. Take time tonight to assist some relative.

Moon children (June 22 to July 21) You are able to get the cooperation of others for whatever your plans may be of an ethical nature today. Forget that one project that could be quite worrisome. Pick it up another day.

Leo (July 22 to Aug. 21) If you handle business or family matters early, you can later get out to educational or recreational events that appeal to you. Don't be critical of higher-ups or you get into deep trouble. Show that you have tact.

Virgo (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Find a more modern modus operandi now that can be most helpful in your career. Get your work done quickly and then look into new projects, ideas. Study any brochures very carefully.

Libra (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Stop worrying about finances and follow suggestions of a clever associate and you make this unproductive day, P.M. You can reach a fine reconciliation with mate if you use diplomacy at this time. Avoid histrionics.

Scorpio (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Making sure you get work done properly instead of starting an argument with a partner is your best way to proceed now. Try to please an attachment who is feeling piqued. Plan to save more money in the days ahead.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Instead of worrying yourself sick over something, gad about socially and find cheerful persons who make you feel much better. You have some creative talent that should be utilized now. Fix your budget in P.M.

Capricorn (Dec. 22 to Jan 20) While getting your home straightened up; think up some plan to bring that project you have in mind to the attention of bigwigs. Get all basic affairs well organized. Evening is best time for recreation.

Aquarius (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Put financial discussions aside for now and delve into those ideas to make the future brighter that you have had buzzing around in your mind for some time. Take care that others do not use some trick to relieve you of some assets.

Pisces (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Get busy on those tasks that improve your financial structure, but do not neglect to handle affairs expected of you by associates. Showing others how diplomatic you are is fine.

If your child is born today...he or she will be one of those pioneering young people who is full of new ideas but who meets with older persons who throw cold water on plan and try to change today's progeny into a more staid type of individual. Make sure you give an opportunity to express self properly by sending to the right schools and supervising the friends early in life. Early religious training is a must here or the mind could go off on a tangent. Sports are important.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

Students study cosmetology

The afternoon cosmetology students at Romulus Senior High School attended a workshop on beauty culture recently in Lincoln Park.

A group of 15 students, who are attending classes three times a week between 3 and 6 p.m., were shown the latest methods of hair styling, skin care, curling and straightening of hair and wig.

care—All important skills for eventual employment in the beauty culture field.

Cosmetology is one of two federally funded courses now being offered evenings and Saturdays to students who have not completed their high school education.

Auto mechanics classes meet on Thursday afternoons and Saturday morning.

Non-Pollution Club offers baked goods

A bake sale, sponsored by the Non-Pollution Club of the Romulus Junior High School, will be held after 3 p.m., Friday, Nov. 13, at the Manufacturers National Bank, on Goddard Rd., Romulus.

Mrs. June Blanton, club parent advisor, announced that she and faculty advisor, Mrs. Emily Thomas, are inviting the community to drop in and make their baked good purchases from the boys and girls.

The club members are, according to Mrs. Blanton, going to purchase buttons, decals and flags to illustrate further their concern about the environment.

The technological advances of our late 20th century environment has not been without its price, and that price manifests itself in pollution—pollution of our air and water and, equally serious, noise pollution. Like its counterparts, noise pollution also deserves the immediate attention of every citizen.

Holiday workshop offered

The Western Wayne County YWCA is offering an alternative to "canned" Christmas decorations through their Christmas Workshop to be held in Romulus this year.

Scheduled to begin Nov. 18 at Cory Elementary School, 35200 Smith Rd., the classes will meet between 7:30 and 9:30 p.m. in the school library. Costs for three sessions, Nov. 18, Dec. 2, and Dec. 9, will be $2.50 for "Y" members and $3.50 for non-members. Supplies will be purchased for the group, with cost additional to class fee.

Smith bolted over from seven yards out and McMann to Jeff Maczink two point conversion.

"It was a real good team effort," said coach Pratt. "But we did make mistakes in the third quarter which resulted in four fumbles.

Along with Hamilton, John Arrington also distinguished himself as a ball carrier as he rushed for 35 yards in 11 carries and hauled in three passes for 47 for a total of 82 yards.

McMann, Mike Csaszar, Leighton Ballard and Bryon Ashley provided the Eagles with a solid defensive core which the Cosmos had difficulty cracking. McMann had nine unassisted tackles and a fumble recovery to his credit while Csaszar also pounced on a loose ball for a recovery and Ashley chipped in an interception, a fumble recovery and four unassisted tackles.

Herb Bord also gave an outstanding account of himself on defense.

Blood tests are free during Diabetes Week

Free blood-screening tests to detect diabetes will be available at PCHA's Annapolis Hospital in Wayne during the week of Nov. 16 to 20 as part of the search for the more than 100,000 'hidden' diabetics in Michigan.

Walter S. Wheeler, administrator of Annapolis Hospital, announced that the tests will be available at the hospital from 9 to 11 a.m. and 1 to 3 p.m. They will be given in the Annapolis Hospital laboratory.

Annapolis Hospital is located at the corner of Annapolis Avenue and Venoy road.

Sponsored by the Michigan Diabetes Association, a United Fund agency, Diabetes Week is sponsored nationally by the American Diabetes Association.

Persons planning to be tested are advised to have a meal rich in sugars and starches two hours before testing, to ensure the most accurate result.

They are also asked to bring the name and address of their physician if follow-up is necessary.

According to James J. Auto, M.D., Chairman of the MDA Diabetes Detection Committee, whose who are forty, weigh more than they should, and have a family history of diabetes are especially urged to be tested. "A 'hidden' diabetic is a person who has the condition but is unaware of it," explained Dr. Auto. He said that a person may have the disorder and not know it.

The presence of diabetes may be indicated by excessive thirst and urination, loss of weight, itching, constant hunger, easy tiring, slow healing of cuts and scratches, and changes in vision.

Anyone, even children, may develop diabetes, Dr. Auto noted. But adults over 40 are leading candidates, especially when they are overweight.

"Though there is as yet no cure for diabetes, today's treatment methods can help control it," Dr. Auto said. Diabetes can be controlled by diet, exercise, and when necessary, insulin or one of the oral compounds that reduce blood sugar.

Neglect of diabetes may lead to increased risk of coronary disease, hardening of the arteries, kidney disease, failing eyesight, gangrene, and diabetic coma.

In Michigan, diabetes is ranked as the fourth leading cause of death by disease, the second leading cause of blindness, and a contributing cause in half of all heart attacks.

"We urge everyone to use the occasion of Diabetes Week to be tested as a protection against this disease," said Dr. Auto.

Commissioners call for phasing out patrol

Wayne County's Board of Commissioners has adopted a $196,143,150 budget which generally holds the line on spending and calls for a gradual phasing out of free local patrol services by the County Sheriff.

The record budget, approved at the board's Oct. 29 meeting by a 21-4 vote, is $29.9 million higher than this year's outlay of $166.2 million. However, $27.9 million of the increase is earmarked for welfare grants and will be reimbursed by the state.

The major budgeting decision made by the commissioners was a directive that the Sheriff reorganize his Road Patrol and Investigation Division to emphasize centralized police services and gradually phase out free local patrol activities in the townships.

Townships would still be eligible for local patrol service by the sheriff, but would be expected to pay for it.

No deadline was set for the phase-out. However, the Board of Commissioners requested Sheriff William Lucas to submit a proposed reorganization plan for the Patrol and Investigation Division by Dec. 1, the start of the county fiscal year.

The sheriff requested a $1.5 million increase over this year's $1,995,396 budget for the Road Patrol and Investigation Division to boost the division's manpower from 127 to 212.

The County Board of Auditors recommended a budget of $2,065,010 for the division at $39,029 increase, but a net cut of six patrolmen. The commissioners accepted the auditors' recommendation.

The auditors based their recommendation on the fact that Romulus Township incorporated as a city during the year and under long-standing policy, routine patrol service in Romulus would be discontinued. Nine patrolmen had been working in Romulus, which also has its own police force.

Sheriff Lucas is expected to appear Monday before the Commissioners' Law Enforcement and Public Safety Committee to argue for his original budget request, which included $470,000 for continuation and expansion of the "Metro Squad," an undercover narcotics unit established this year. The meeting is set for 10 a.m. at the City-County Building.

Instead of earmarking money specifically for the Metro Squad, the Board of Commissioners directed that the sheriff reorganize the division, known informally as the Road Patrol in order to continue the Metro Squad. The board resolution states that the reorganization plan should:

-recognize "the established policy of the County of Wayne for a gradual phasing out of Road Patrol services provided to local units of government" - a policy adopted by the County Board on Oct. 25, 1963.

-Provide "capability for continuing activities presently being performed by the existing personnel referred to as the Metro Squad."

The resolution also directed that: "Those communities presently receiving local patrol services from the Sheriff be advised of these proposals towards the objective of said communities immediately developing plans for the financing of such local police protection as they deem advisable."

Eight townships were identified as the major recipients of Sheriff's patrol service in a recent study by the National Association of Chiefs of Police and the Citizens Research Council of Michigan. They were Brownstown, Canton, Northville, Plymouth, Romulus (since incorporated), Sumpster, Huron and Van Buren.

In recommending a hold-the-line budget for the Road Patrol, the Board of Auditors noted that the study recommendations presently are being considered by the Board of Commissioners.

In other major budget actions, the Board:

-Shelved a citizens commission's recommendations for salary hikes for most elected County officials, declaring that the $536,750 needed to grant the raises was not available. The increases recommended were $10,000 for judges, $5,000 for most elected offices and $2,000 for county commissioners.

-Earmarked $1.5 million for acquisition of additional facilities for housing prisoners in order to relieve overcrowding at the County Jail. A number of possible sites are being explored.

-Cut the Port Commission budget from $127,185 to $34,000 - a move resulting from a proposal that the commission contract with the Greater Detroit Chamber of Commerce for staff services.

-Took $1 million from a tuberculosis treatment account in anticipation of a like decrease in the cost of TB care and earmarked the money to meet higher payroll costs which are expected to result from current union contract negotiations.

The study recommended reorganization and upgrading of the Road Patrol, stating that the department "as presently organized and operated does not provide a suitable vehicle for the provision of police services in the County."

During floor debate, several commissioners pointed out that the Sheriff's budget can be adjusted during the year if charges are warranted.

The County budget adopted by the Board of Commissioners is only $340,000 higher than the total recommended by the Board of Auditors, a reflection of the fact that it is one of the tightest budgets in recent years.

The study concluded that townships, in particular, should pay more of the cost if they want the Sheriff to continue to provide local police service for them. It stated that "most unincorporated areas pay very little for police services even though they have a relatively greater ability to pay than many of the incorporated areas that must pay both for their own police services and for the services in unincorporated areas."

-Earmarked $137,500 for the Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority, which $87,500 of it "to be expended only upon specific authorization by the Board of Commissioners after review as to contributions requested and received from other units of government."

-Added one hearing referee and supporting staff to Juvenile Court at a cost of $41,575 and increased the Child Development Center budget by $75,000 in response to a strong plea for more psychologists.

-Increased by $2 the present $17.50 weekly payment for foster home care of wards of Juvenile Court. The Board stipulated that the increase be passed on to the foster parents by the agencies involved.

Commissioner Frederick Yates, of Detroit, D-District 9, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee which recommended the budget after weeks of hearings and deliberations, stated:

"This is a tight budget. Under present circumstances, we can't do anything more. But this doesn't preclude any department coming before us later if they feel they need further consideration. We now confront a very bleak financial picture. Perhaps it will improve later in the year."

Campuses

Forty million people pitch tents or park trailers at the 500,000 campsites in the United States every year, the National Geographic Society reports.

Denton students see knife exhibit

The students at Denton Elementary School were treated to a knife exhibit and talk by Scott Riley, 13, son of Prentice E. Riley, 6357 Denton Rd.

A former Denton Elementary School student, Riley now attends the North Junior High School. In connection with his hobby, he has collected 242 knives of all sorts, shapes and varieties.

At the school last Friday afternoon, Riley displayed a portion of his collection of knives and discussed his hobby of knife collecting that started three years ago.

His interest in knives was fostered by his uncle, Andrew Palmer, former owner of the Military Inn. Palmer recently bolstered Riley's collection by some 100 knives.

School Principal William S. Chizmar said, "Scott did a great job of presenting his collection to the students. The children were captivated and the teachers were amazed with the knowledge he had of the subject."

Parents, teachers discuss students

The Huron School District has announced a schedule of parent-teacher conferences. The conferences will be held Nov. 18 through Nov. 20, Assistant School Superintendent Luke Wegienka reported.

Students at the Hannan Road and Riverside Elementary Schools will be dismissed at 11:45 a.m., Nov. 18 and Nov. 19. The conferences will begin at 6 p.m. and run until 9 p.m. on Nov. 18, and begin at 12:45 p.m. and run until 3:30 p.m., Nov. 19.

On Friday, Nov. 20, students at these two schools will be dismissed at 1:45 p.m. Conferences will start at 2 p.m.

The schedule for Huron Elementary, Huron Junior High School and Huron Senior High School is as follows: Wednesday, Nov. 18, students will be dismissed at 11 a.m. Conferences will start at 11:30 a.m.

On Thursday, Nov. 19 the students will be dismissed at the same time but the conferences will start at 6 p.m.

Servicemen

Marine Sgt. Michael P. Barnett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Taft Barnett, of 43101 Harris Rd., and husband of the former Miss Vicki A. Vinson, 12537 Cake Point Pass, all of Belleville, is serving at Marine Corps Air Station, Cherry Point, N.C.

Bank asks for alley vacation

A resolution proposing the vacation and discontinuance of the north-south alley between Middlebelt Rd. and Hyde Park Ave. south of Lorman Ave. has been approved by Romulus City Council.

A public hearing to hear any objections to the proposal is scheduled for 7 p.m. Nov. 24 at the Water Board Building.

A petition seeking vacation of the alley was filed by the National Bank of Detroit in connection with the construction of its new bank branch in Romulus.

Permit approved

The Industrial Lease-Back Corp., with offices in Detroit, has been granted a building permit to construct a one-story industrial building in Romulus.

The new structure will be built on the north side of Beverly Rd. between Middlebelt and Merriman Rds., at an estimated cost of $147,000.

CHICHESTER, England (AP) — War is Joseph Lindhurst's hobby and American is his style — he and 20 friends dressed as World War II GI's like to parade around in four U. S. Jeeps just for fun. "We get some strange looks," said Lindhurst, 46, a vacation campowner, "but you can't drive around in a Jeep with a bowler on, can you?"

The resolution calls for the maintenance of an easement for public utility purposes.

The building permit was approved by Joseph B. Gallagher, manager of the Romulus Building Department. The building permit fee was $588.
